The Aquinas Mothers' Club will present its annual Fashion Show and Card Party Friday evening, May 6 at 8 p. m. in the Aquinas auditorium.

Mrs. Carl Samuelson is serving as general chairman, and Mrs. Harry Blaeser is co-chairman, assisted by the following: Mrs. Raymond Uschold and Mrs. John O'Hara, tickets: Mrs. Frank Redman, tables and cards; Mrs. Frank Dunning and Mrs. D. A. Bredmore, door; Mrs. Paul Noonan and Mrs. John Mahoney, table prizes; Mrs. Joseph Schorr, Mrs. Stanley Kowalski and Mrs. Leo Shanley, decorations; Mrs. Alfred Gysel, fashion show.

Fashions will be from the E. W. Edwards Store under direction of Miss Sally Franklin, fashion co-ordinator. Displaying the modals will be: Mesdames Harry Blaeser, Alfred Gysel, William Craig, William Hickey, Edward Walsh, D. G. Friel; Clarence Scheel, William Beresch, Raymond Uschold, James Porcari, William Schetter, A. W. Schmitz, Lester Vermeier, N. Kleisley, P. Provenzano, and Mary Anne Samuelson, Margaret Schorr, Mary Sullivan, Sheila O'Brien, Maureen Hickey, Ruth Yeoman, Betty Doyle, Jeanne Papper.

Religion is an integral part of the vacation program at the Edwards Camp Stella Maris on Conesus Lake. Above are some of the boys in St. Jude's Chapel. Activities like this, help in making necessary repairs at the camp and purchase of some new rowboats for enjoyment of campers are all planned with proceeds from a mammoth card party slated Wednesday May 11 at Columbus Civic Center auditorium, 8:30 p. m., according to Rev. Walter A. Fischer, camp director.

Convention Set Here By Equity Order

National convention of the Knights of Equity will be held Oct. 13, 14 and 15 in Rochester with His Excellency, Bishop Kearney as guest speaker and Christopher A. Delanty as chairman. The knights announced at a meeting in Buffalo over the weekend.

Led by Supreme Sir Knight, Michael T. Ryan, officers of the Supreme Council, Knights of Equity and ladies attended a Supreme Council meeting in the Irish Club, Buffalo, April 23 and 24.

Coming from Rochester with Ryan were: Rev. Roy B. Murphy, supreme chaplain; Thomas Davis, supreme treasurer; and Christopher A. Delanty, supreme secretary. Robert P. Kiernan, Sir Knight of Rochester Court, a guest of the Supreme Council and Martin Scallan, a past supreme knight also attended.

For the first time in several years, exemplification of the Third Degree took place in the Buffalo Club rooms.

A protest against the partition in Northern Ireland was included in important business transactions.
