'Fr. Lane Gang' Gathers In N. Y.

Commissioners Mulrooney, Cass and Schoenfeld commended the movement highly. They described it as a real step in the work of helping parolees. They said it is another distinct achievement by Monsignor Lane, to be added to those he has already contributed to the institutional and parole programs, not only in this state, but in others throughout the country.

Monsignor Lane greeted those present and thanked them for their cooperation. He said he was proud of "his gang," told how the idea was originated with the members and of how anxious he is to see it really bear fruit.

Messages of regret at not being able to attend and of wishes for success were read from John A. Lyons, Commissioner of Correction; Frederick A. Moran and Edward Donovan, both Parole Board members; Edgar Bromberg, New York City Chief Magistrate; Myles McDonald, Kings County District Attorney; Superintendent Col. Leroy Weaver of Elmira Reformatory; Phillip Heimlich, Youth Counsel Bureau; Envoy J. Stanley Sheppard of the Salvation Army and the Rev. Thomas Donovan of Sing Sing.
