May Queen Crowned At Nazareth College In Ceremony Honoring Blessed Mother

Miss Joan Spindler was crowned May Queen of Nazareth College in a colorful public ceremony Wednesday afternoon on the college campus in honor of Mary, heavenly Queen of May.

Receiving her floral crown from seniors Helen Crotty and Suzanne Tierney, Miss Spindler transferred the wreath from her own brows to the head of the statue of Our Lady.

Attending the queen were two members of each class elected by their classmates; freshmen Thelma Drexillus and Eleanor Suchan of Buffalo; sophomores Mary Jean Hart and Mary Ann Donovan; juniors Eileen Thane and Jacqueline Burgess.

HIGH MASS OPENED the program in the morning with Rev. William Shannon officiating and the entire faculty and student body attending. Following breakfast in the cafeteria, a pilgrimage was made to the five shrines of the Blessed Virgin at various places on the campus erected by each of the four classes and the Sodality.

General theme of the shrines was "Mary in Our Personal Lives." Each was designed to portray the relation of Mary to various critical points in the life of each person.

Different classes' themes were as follows: "Our Lady and Our Baptism," freshmen, with Margaret Corrou as Mary; "Our Lady and Our First Communion," sophomores, Rosemary Schoenher, as Mary; "Our Lady and Our Sodality Reception," juniors, Betty Rossney; "Our Lady and Our Vocation," seniors Betty Cavanaugh; "Our Lady at the Hour of Our Death," Sodality, Joan Spindler.
