

May Queen Crowned At Nazareth College In Ceremony Honoring Blessed Mother

Miss Joan Spindler was crowned May Queen of Nazareth College in a colorful public ceremony Wednesday afternoon on the college campus in honor of Mary, heavenly Queen of May.

Rev. William Shannon officiating and the entire faculty and student body attending. Following breakfast in the cafeteria, a pilgrimage was made to the live shrines of the Blessed Virgin at various places on the campus erected by each of the four classes and the Sodality.

General theme of the shrines was "Mary in Our Personal Lives." Each was designed to portray the relation of Mary to various critical points in the life of each person.
