Corning DCCW Hear Story Of Italian Stigmatist

Corning—Due to unforeseen transportation difficulties, the Rev. Paul J. Cuddy, chaplain at Sampson College, was unable to arrive in time to give his scheduled address at the Corning DCCW National Council of Catholic Women, in the Baron Steuben Hotel.

However, the Rev. Innocent Amore, OFM Capuchin Father of Geneva, who is substituting at St. Vincent de Paul's Church, took his place. Father Innocent was to have introduced Father Cuddy.

Father Innocent spoke on the life of Padre Pio of the Capuchin Fathers, now living in Italy, who is a stigmatist. Padre Pio bears wounds similar to those of Christ and fasts each Friday, the priest said.

Later Father Cuddy arrived and gave a talk on the Thomas Federal Aid Bill which provides for aid to each State for public but not private schools.

The tea, which was under the general chairmanship of Miss Mary C. Hart and Miss Julia Skelly was attended by more than 100 persons. Miss Mary McLehock was program chairman and Miss Madeline Stenger was in charge of decorations.

In the reception committee were Mesdames Paul Lovette, Thomas Ross, Edith Griffin, George Mitchell, Jack Holland, Walter Poland, Helen Dalley, Frank Ryan and the Misses Betty Nardie have been named to the office of Junior stigmatists.

A vote for every student seems to be the popular quota for the month.

ALUMNI NEWS Graduating last week from St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing is Joan Curran, class of '44. Congratulations Joan.

Elmira Catholic Highlights

By KATHERINE CARSTATER

Last Friday was a bright day for the Sodality of Elmira Catholic High. The 8 o'clock Mass at St. Patrick's was offered for the success of the Sodality. After the Mass which was attended by the majority of Sodalitys, a communion breakfast was held in the school hall.

This was the first time such an event had been planned by the sodality and it was successful. Before the breakfast started an impressive Mass was sung and its chairman.

Mary Helen Sullivan had the honor of placing the yellow wreath of yellow roses on our Lady's head. Mary Helen's other attendants, Margaret Phik, Mary Sedor, Mary Hogan, Mary Ann Lepa, Patricia Boyle, Dorothea Weidlich and Norma Romaner wore white dresses.

Our Lady's Crown and the flowers were made possible through the efforts of Joan Carol O'Connor, and the shrine was constructed by Ralph Reed and Jack Titus. John Cusick and John Murphy were responsible for the planning of food for the affair.

A more solemn significance was attached to the occasion as the sodality renewed their act of consecration. A spirit of enjoyment prevailed. The ceremony was also attended by the faculty members and the occasion was topped off in an address by our sodality director, Father Burns.

CHIT CHAT The Bishops' Oratoricals are over but the happy moments live on. Last Tuesday's two boxes filled with lively students made their way to Aquinas Institute in Rochester. We were all proud of our contestant, Tom Axin who came in second for the boys.

Ruth Gudinas of Nazareth Academy and James Moynihan of St. Andrew's Seminary were the victors. It was an exciting evening and although we returned home in the early hours of the next morning, everyone agreed they had had a good time.

SCATTER CHAPTER Sodality meeting will be held next Tuesday evening and this has brought a busy busy as the different committees were preparing for skills to be presented. From all reports it should be a very eventful evening. Tickets are now on sale for the annual Sodality Party which will take place at 8:00 o'clock p.m. on June 5th in the R. of C.
