Elmira Catholic Highlights

By KATHERINE CARSTATER. Last Friday was a bright day for the Sodality of Elmirite Catholic High. The 8 o'clock Mass at St. Patrick's was offered for the success of the Sodality. After the Mass which was attended by the majority of Sodality members, a communion breakfast was held in the school hall.

This was the first time such an event had been planned by the sodality and it was successful. Before the breakfast started an impressive Mass was sung and the choir sang.

Corning DCCW Hear Story Of Italian Stigmatist

Corning—Due to unforeseen transportation difficulties, the Rev. Paul J. Cuddy, chaplain at Sampson College, was unable to arrive in time to give his scheduled address at the Corning DCCW.

However, the Rev. Innocent Amore, OFM, Capuchin Father of Geneva, who is substituting at St. Vincent de Paul's Church, took his place. Father Innocent was to have introduced Father Cuddy.

Father Innocent spoke on the life of Padre Pio of the Capuchin Fathers, now living in Italy, who is a stigmatist. Padre Pio bears wounds similar to those of Christ and fasts each Friday, the priest said.

Later Father Cuddy arrived and gave a talk on the Thomas Federal Aid Bill which provides for aid to each State for public but not private schools.

The tea, which was under the general chairmanship of Miss Mary C. Hart and Miss Julia Skelly was attended by more than 100 persons. Miss Mary McLynch was program chairman and Miss Madeline Stenger was in charge of decorations.
