A. O. H. Communion To Honor War Hero Scheduled Sunday

The Second Annual Communion Breakfast sponsored by the Monroe County Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will be held on Sunday June 6, 1949.

Mass and Communion will be held in St. Mary's Church at 8 and will be followed by the Communion Breakfast at 9:30 a. m. in the Victorian Room of the Sheraton Hotel.

The main speaker at the breakfast will be the Rev. Matthew M. Tobin, C.S.B. He will be introduced by the Rev. Michael P. O'Brien County Chaplain of the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

The Masses and Communion this year will be a Memorial to Jerry Farrell a member of the AOH who was killed in action during the last war. Farrell was the only member of the AOH to give his life in the service of his country.

The committee in charge of the breakfast includes Mrs. Paul Shannon, Martin M. Brophy, Walter Anderson, Patrick O'Hara, Helen Wenzel, Virginia Cook, Paul Shannon, Ross McMahon and Edward Hennessey. All members of the AOH and their friends are invited to attend. Reservations for the breakfast may be made by calling Glen 0121.

Tea To Honor Foster Parents

The child caring agencies of Monroe County including Rochester Catholic Charities are sponsoring a tea at Rochester Chamber of Commerce, Sunday, June 6 at 2:15 p. m. to honor foster parents.

Judge Thomas Mowher, of Children's Court, will be the principal speaker. Children of the Catholic settlement houses, the Genesee and the Charles houses, will provide entertainment at the tea.

Adults To Dance At Immaculate

Immaculate auditorium, teenagers dancing center, will be the scene of a dance for the "young in spirit" Saturday evening, June 4 to be patronized by adults of the parish.

Randy Parson's orchestra will play for round and square dancing from 9 until midnight. This will be the first in a series of parish family dances.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Minton are co-chairmen. Members of the executive committee of the Family Guidance Group of the parish will assist in making arrangements.

Tickets are sixty cents and may be obtained at the Edinburgh Street entrance of the school auditorium Saturday evening. Public is invited.

F. S. Baker Rites Conducted By Kin

Funeral services for Frank S. Baker, 220 Titus Ave. formerly of 355 Brooks Ave. was held Tuesday, May 31 at St. Margaret Mary's Church.

Mr. Baker, 87, formerly of 355 Brooks Ave., died Friday, May 27, 1949.

His grandson, the Rev. James F. Baker of Ithaca celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass assisted by the Rev. John A. Connolly of Newark as Deacon and the Rev. Gerald E. Dunn, Subdeacon.

Mr. Baker, a native of Watertown, moved to Rochester in 1910. He was connected with Thyler Instrument Company and Indian Splint Furniture Co. for many years. He retired about two years ago.

For many years Mr. Baker was a member of St. Monica's parish. A short time ago he went to live with his son, James F. Baker, 220 Titus Ave.

He is survived by three sons, James F., Richard J. and Francis S., 12 grandchildren and three great grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

State Officer

ROCCO NATALIE

Rochester K. C. Member Elected State Warden

Rocco F. Natalie, 38 Child Street returned from the New York State Convention, Knights of Columbus held over the week end in Syracuse as State Warden. He was elected with the other state officers at the closing session.

Also from the Rochester diocese area elected were Frank J. Kelly, Hornell, a delegate to the Supreme Convention in Portland Oregon, and Frank J. Cuddy, Auburn, a supreme convention alternate.

Natalie is the first state officer elected from Rochester Council since 1906, according to Grand Knight John J. Kinney who headed the delegation.

Winners of state scholarships announced at the convention were Boys, Cornelius James O'Connell, (Canisius High School, Buffalo and Girls, Margaret Mary Schmiegel, St. Anthony of Padua High School, Syracuse.

THOMAS H. GREEN, of 595 Seneca Parkway finished second after O'Connell. In the girls division, Marjorie M. Klem, 33 Langford Road was third and Eleanor C. Conheady, 140 Curtis St., seventh. Nazareth Academy girls according to District Deputy Francis T. Toomey the other Rochester delegate.

Matthew F. Kennedy of Brooklyn was elected State Deputy to succeed William E. Burke of Utica, a supreme director.

OTHER OFFICERS named were State Secretary, E. Bartley Boyle, Port Jervis; Treasurer, Joseph A. Smith, New York City; State Advocate, Thomas L. Fitzgerald, New York City and Natalie, State warden.

Climaxing the sessions was the state dinner at which Supreme Knight John E. Swift of Boston cited the opportunity ahead for Catholic laymen banded together as are the Knights of Columbus. He urged a membership of 1,000,000 Knights.

The present controversy of Federal Aid to schools was discussed by State Deputy Burke whose topic was "Are Catholic Children American Children?" He cited pending bills excluding Catholic schools from participation in welfare funds.

"It is Anti-Catholic and anti-American to discriminate against the children of Catholic schools," the State Deputy said.

"They are full fledged American citizens. They will be qualified to vote eligible for public office, subject to military service and obligated for public taxes."

"They are a cross section of American life bright and dull, rich and poor colored and white. They are typically and wholly American."

Choral Training Summer Session Set At Nazareth

During the summer session, July 5 to August 11, the Music Department of Nazareth College will offer a special course in "Choral Literature" and "Conducting" to be given by J. Theodore Hollenbach, Director of the Glee Club.

Sessions will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Friday at 1:00 p. m.

The course will be open to regular and special students, who desire to avail themselves of this opportunity for choral training.

Mr. Robert G. Hobstetter will give lectures and demonstrations in piano pedagogy, as well as piano lessons. Miss Rose Salamone, pianist and Miss Virginia Bogdan, organist, both of the regular faculty, will be on the summer school staff, as well as Sister Anna Louise, who will give some work in Liturgical Music.

Courses in the regular Music Degree program will be offered by other members of the music faculty.

Hop Slated At Corpus Christi

Corpus Christi Youth Club will sponsor a "rock hop" Saturday, June 4 in Corpus Christi hall. Eddie Blanchard's orchestra will play for dancing from 9 to 12.

Morgan Dunn as chairman, announced that special committees have been appointed under Margaret Balconi, Barbara Holland and Marjorie Byrd.

Shoes will be checked at the door for safe keeping while dancing goes on in socks. Tickets are being sent out to members of the Youth Club and may be purchased from them or at the door, the night of the dance.
