St. Anthony Novena Set In Elmira Patronal Church

A Nine-Day Novena will begin Sunday, June 5 in preparation for the Feast of St. Anthony, June 13 in the patronal church of Elmira according to the Rev. Albert L. Simonetti.

Two services will be held each night at 7 p. m. in Italian and 8 p. m. in English.

PREACHER WILL be the Rev. Ignatius Formica, C.P. Passionist Father from Scranton, Pa. at both services.

Masses each day of the Novena will be at 7, 7:30 and 8 a. m.

Services will consist of Prayer to St. Anthony, sermon, Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and Veneration of the Relic of St. Anthony.

Solemn Closing on the Feast of St. Anthony, Monday, June 6 will include Solemn Mass at 9 a. m., Solemn Closing services will be held in the evening at 7 and 8 p. m.

A new Novena booklet recently published by St. Anthony's parish will be available for use by those attending the Novena. The booklet according to Father Simonetti will be used also throughout the year at the regular Tuesday novena services held in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima and St. Anthony.

The booklet will be sent to the sick and shut-ins who send in their petitions. Father Simonetti announces.

Sick Asked To Pray June 5

"The world's redemption was begun in suffering; the conversion of pagan nations shall likewise be accomplished in suffering."

This is declared by the Very Rev. Mr. John S. Randall, diocesan director, Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the annual appeal for observance of Mission Sunday of the Sick.

Sick and shut-ins whether at home or in hospitals or sanitariums are being asked by their pastors to join in the observance, Sunday, June 5, Pentecost.

"Let us second the heroic efforts of our courageous missionaries by increasing the pain and suffering of our sick and infirm to the end that Christ the King may reign throughout the world," the diocesan director urges.

Auburn Prison Staff Attends Annual Breakfast

Auburn - Many members of the Department of Correction employed at Auburn State Prison gathered for their second annual Communion breakfast at 9 a. m. at the Osborne Hotel. The group had first attended Mass and Communion services in the prison chapel.

Guest speaker was County Attorney Edwin W. Leary. Assemblyman Charles A. Cusick was a guest. Carmen Colletta, president of the Cayuga Chapter of the Civil Service Association, was toastmaster. The invocation and blessing was offered by the Rev. Gregory Dugan, Catholic Chaplain at Auburn prison.

Willard L. Demmo, acting assistant principal keeper, were introduced. The absence of Warden John F. Foster, who is currently on the sick list, was noted, and the hope was expressed that he would soon be back on duty.
