Military Mass Honors 12 War Dead at St. Bridget's

A Memorial Military Mass honoring twelve young men of St. Bridget's Parish who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II was celebrated in St. Bridget's Church by the Rev. Dr. Stanislaus Krolak of St. Bernard's Seminary.

The Memorial service was sponsored by the Holy Name Society, members of which assisted at the Mass and received Holy Communion in a body.

SERMON WAS preached by the Rev. Gerald T. Brennan, pastor of St. Bridget's. Uniformed legionnaires Harold Eisele and Herbert Muhs served as altar boys.

National and church colors were advanced by members of Elke Jordan Bauer American Legion Post including Paul Binzeskl, John Bacon, Robert Klingler, James Champaigne and Oliver C. Pasch.

The choir under the direction of Miss Mary Hart sang a program especially arranged for the service.

Elvido DeBellis, chairman of the veterans committee of St. Bridget's Holy Name Society was chairman assisted by President Edward DiPrimi and Treasurer Oliver C. Pasch and Arthur Welch.

Echo Taps were blown by Raymond Decker and Samuel Gunther.

The honored war dead of St. Bridget's are: William R. Bauer, Christopher Brucato, Sam Criscuillo, Demetrio DiBellis, Anthony S. DiLeo, John Giambesta, Robert Guilfoil, Anthony Raymond, Charles P. Ricotta, Patsy C. Russo, Peter Sulli, and George P. Welch.

Niagara Priest Dies Suddenly

The Rev. John J. Regan, C.M., Ph.D., former head of the Biology department at Niagara University died unexpectedly June 5, 1949, friends here have learned. He was 57 years old.

Born in Leominster, Mass., Father Regan attended the public schools of that city and later attended St. Vincent's Apostolic School, Germantown, Pa. He entered the Vincentian Novitiate in 1912, taking his final vows in 1914. He was ordained to the Holy Priesthood on May 16, 1918 in Baltimore by His Eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons.

His first assignment was at St. Joseph's College, Princeton, N. J., where he remained for one year before coming to Niagara University.

Father Regan took post graduate work at St. Johns' and Columbia Universities, receiving his Ph.D. degree in 1934.

Taken ill in 1934, Father Regan retired from active teaching in 1945, after having headed the Biology Department at Niagara since 1919.

A solemn high Mass of requiem was sung Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. in Alumni Chapel on the University campus, with the Very Rev. Thomas Madden, C.M., superior at the university as celebrant. Burial took place in Our Lady of Angel's cemetery on the Niagara campus.

Win Speaking Honors At Nazareth Hall

Nazareth Hall's Intermediate Speech Class entertained their parents Friday, June 3 with a display of their oratorical ability.

Judged best of the various grades were: Paul Nochelski, 3rd grade; Robert Iuppa, 4th; Michael Langie, 5th; David Bertsch, 6th; Bruce Metzger, 7th.

Judges were Miss Alice Kirk, Miss Lucy Sheridan and Mrs. Donna O'Connor.

Youth Club To Give Minstrels

Corpus Christi Youth Club and members of Girl Scout Troop 229 will present their fourth annual minstrel show in the church hall, corner Main Street East and Prince, Friday evening, June 10 at 8:15.

A special program of singing, and dancing and comedy has been arranged with Gerald E. Dunn acting as "Mr. Interlocutor."

End "men" will be Dolores Travis, Ann Taillie and Cecilia M. Dincher. Newcomers are the Misses Jean Ann Gery, and Jean Marie Webber, and Jack Phillips and Jimmy Viola.

The fourth endman, Thomas E. Shafer, who is stationed in New Jersey with the U S Army, will be represented by his chair, placed on the stage with the top hat, white gloves and a service star.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours are scheduled in the folowing churches of the Rochester Diocese:

Sunday, June 12 — St. Dominic, Shortsville.

Seminary Life Outlined For Avon Holy Name Men

Avon — An average day in the life of a seminarian and an outline of his studies were presented by the Rev. Joseph Egan, S.T.D., professor of theology at St. Bernard's Seminary, principal speaker at a banquet of St. Agnes Holy Name Society June 1 at Jack Driscoll's Tally-Ho Inn.

It was a first annual banquet for the Society, which was reorganized last October after several years of inactivity. Approximately 100 attended.

In a description of the progress of the Society, the Rev. Wallace VanDeusen, assistant pastor of St. Agnes and spiritual director, pointed out that some 150 men have been receiving Corporate Communion on Holy Name Sunday each month.

An average of 90 men has attended the breakfasts after the Communion Mass. The Society has contributed to the school a sound film projector and a television receiver. Father VanDeusen congratulated the men on their delegation of 27 at the recent Welcome Home Dinner for Bishop Kearney.

The Rev. Charles Muckle, pastor, concluded the evening's remarks in his own congratulation on the reorganization of the Society, declaring that it has had capable leadership and an influence in the lives and homes of its members.

Officers include Karl Kiefer, Raymond Salley, Walter Smearing and Charles Connor.

Mrs. McGuire Heads Leicester Society

Leicester—Mrs. John McGuire is new president of the Rosary Society of St. Thomas Aquinas parish, succeeding Mrs. Charles Duffy, who has held the post for the last two years.

Serving with Mrs. McGuire will be Mrs. Anthony Longhine, vice-president, Mrs. John Driscoll, secretary, and Mrs. Gerald Monterone, treasurer.

Annual picnic of the Society has been slated tentatively for the forepart of August at Warsaw Park. It will be a family outing. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. William Johnson and Mrs. Kenneth Hanna.

A tureen dinner at the Leicester Casino on May 31 climaxed the current year's program for retiring officers.

Meet at Holy Apostles

Members of Holy Apostles Auxiliary, Knights of St. John will meet in the school auditorium, 8 p.m. on Wednesday, June 15.

Auxiliary Unit To Note Jubilee

Golden Jubilee of District No 1 of New York, Ladies Auxiliary, Knights of St John will be celebrated at a banquet Thursday, June 16 at 6:30 p.m. in the Powers Hotel.

Mrs. Caroline Foster is honorary chairman. Miss Mary Witzel, chairman, and all trustees of district and subordinate auxiliaries complete the committee. Major Camilla Hasziauer has been selected as toastmistress.

Reservations may be made by calling the chairman of the board of trustees of each auxiliary. Friends are invited to join in the celebration. Deadline set for reservations is June 13.

Graduate 76 Tots From Kindergarten

Seventy-six "graduates," wearing caps and gowns were handed diplomas at "commencement" exercises for Holy Apostles kindergarten Sunday afternoon, June 5 in the school hall.

Two youngsters, dressed as priests, presented the diplomas to their classmates, with Sister Helen Agnes, teacher, standing by. Class colors of blue and white were chosen in honor of the Blessed Virgin.

The program included songs and musical selections by the "graduates," recitation of the class motto and an address.
