TEACHING
THE FAITH

PICTURING
THE FAITH

This weekend the fascinating new world of television will open its treasures of sight and sound for families in the Rochester Diocese as WHAM-TV begins its first program from Pinnacle Hill . . . As an entertainer, a teacher, a social force, television offers new and distinctive powers of reaching millions of minds . . . As an arm of religion it can serve the Church to teach the truths of Christ vividly and picture the meaning and the beauty of liturgy . . . The COURIER JOURNAL salutes WHAM-TV on its debut; this edition shows some presentations, problems and potentialities of the 20th Century miracle—television.
