

2 German Priests Arrive To Study Diocesan Schools

Two German priests whose job is to aid in democratization of their native Germany are in Rochester this week to study the Catholic Schools at the request of the United States Military Government, Religious Affairs Branch.

Under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Charles J. Mahoney, Superintendent of Rochester Diocesan Catholic Schools, they are observing school administration.

THE PRIESTS, Rev. Dr. Friedrich Doer, and Rev. Theodor Lotz, arrived from Detroit Tuesday afternoon. They will stay over until Sunday afternoon when they will depart for Boston to pursue their study of the American Catholic school systems.

While in Rochester, they are being conducted on a tour of Catholic elementary and high schools by the Rev. Charles V. Boyle, Associate Superintendent, who speaks German fluently. Both Father Doer and Father Lotz, however, speak good English.

They are also visiting typical American homes and institutions.

Father Doer, who comes from Mainz, is a professor of Theology and Pedagogy at Philipshochschule, Theologische Hochschule at Elbstadt in Germany His companion, Father Lotz, who comes from Oplanden-Rheinland, is a former Army chaplain, who was a prisoner of war under the Allies. He became well-known during imprisonment as camp leader and formed a youth group of prisoners, building up the first information room for education. In 1947, he was sent to England to study the young people, educational methods and organizations. The following year he attended the world youth congress of the United Nations in London.

Sponsoring the tours of these priests and others who will visit America under the same program is the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The program was launched by the U. S. Military Government because, according to the official statement issued this summer, "Religious institutions are recognized as a significant element in the social structure of Germany and the values inherent in the moral and spiritual resources of the German people are recognized as essential to the realization of this (re-education) program."

Canisius Grads Told Measure Of Education

The good effects of your Christian education will be measured only in terms of how much service you can give to society, the Rev. Dr. Charles J. Mahoney, Superintendent of Rochester Diocesan Schools, told graduates of Canisius College in his baccalaureate address Saturday in Buffalo.

Pointing out that love of God depends on how much you love your neighbor, Doctor Mahoney reminded the class "You have not been educated and prepared for the society of the Social Register, but you have been educated for the society of this Twentieth Century bedeviled by social and economic ills for which Christian social principles are the sole remedy."

The Rochester educator warned the young men that economic achievement should not be the sole criterion of success and called upon them to examine thoroughly the particular profession or vocation which they had chosen to find out how they could best serve God and society. He appealed to them not to allow their youthful idealism to be sullied by their adult environment.

"Youth has no vested interest in evil. Don't be afraid of your youth. Let your youth be critical of your environment but don't be overcome or overawed by it."

Reject outright in the adult world and adult environment that which is to be rejected. Accept and renew and restore in Christ that which is to be accepted and renewed and re-stored."

Fr. Cirincione To Lead Pilgrims To Fatima Shrine

Rev. Joseph Cirincione, Pastor of St. Francis of Assisi Church, Rochester, will lead a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Blessed Mother at Fatima in August. "Father Joe" was in Fatima in May 1948 and visited Sister Lucy with her confessor, His Excellency, Manuel, Bishop of Guza.

This great pilgrimage will form the largest English speaking group ever to assist in the celebrations at Fatima and has been organized by the Dublin, London and Washington offices of the International Catholic Travel Service whose headquarters are in Washington, D.C.

The Irish contingent will be arriving in Portugal in three specially chartered flying boats from Dublin.
