St. Andrew's Nine Again Wins Parish School Title

Despite a broken finger on his pitching hand, Ronny Gerew of the St. Andrew's grammar school team led his mates to their second straight Holy Name Parochial Softball League title Saturday by holding back a Fighting Holy Rosary nine 5 to 3 at the Kodak Park field.

An All-Star Team will be chosen from among the 24 school nines and will be announced soon. Possibly games with all-star parochia teams from other cities still is under consideration.

HOLY ROSARY, under the direction of the Rev. John S. Whalen, came from behind in a spirited fashion to reach the finals after losing a game to the scrappy team from St. Lucy's 10 to 9.

Clashes of the game scores indicated a well-balanced league this year which could not quite overcome the pitching superiority of Gerew. The league commenced 21 parochial schools divided into four divisions.

Noted Jesuit is 70 London (NC) The Rev. C. Martindale, S.J., well-known throughout the English-speaking world has celebrated his 70th birthday.
