Ordination Set In Rome For PB Parish Boy

First boy of Most Precious Blood Parish to become a priest, the Rev. Nicholas Arioli, C.P.P.S. son of Joseph and Clara Arioli, 34 Stenson St., will be ordained in St. John the Lateran Basilica, Sunday, June 19 according to the Rev. Sebastian Contegiacomo, C.P.P.S. pastor.

Father Arioli's first Mass will be celebrated in the village of Villenvallelonga in Italy the native village of his parents. Celebration of the young priest's first Mass in the village is regarded as a special honor to the townspeople, his parents and many relatives there.

After attending public school No. 43 and Aquinas Institute, young Arioli joined the Congregation of the Precious Blood and studied at St. Joseph's College, Ind. He made three years of theology at St. Meinrad Seminary, Ind. before going to Rome.

Father Arioli will return in August to celebrate his first Solemn Mass in his parish church on Aug. 21.

With Eugene Huether, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Huether, 1239 Lexington Ave., and an Army veteran, he said in October, 1948 to study at the Gregorian University in Rome.

St. Andrew's Nine Again Wins Parish School Title

Despite a broken finger on his pitching hand, Ronny Gerew of the St. Andrew's grammar school team led his mates to their second straight Holy Name Parochial Softball League title Saturday by holding back a fighting Holy Rosary nine 5 to 3 at the Kodak Park field.

It was a glorious climax for the tall lither Gerew who was aided to his 21st consecutive pitching victory by the double play when the going got rough. He went the route with a splinter on his middle finger an injury sustained in a semifinal tilt against St. Lucy's two days earlier.

In great measure the St. Andrew's two league titles are attributable to the expert mound work of Gerew whose younger brother played first base. The team is capably coached by Ronny's father and elder brother under the guidance of the Rev. John W. Lawrence.

Ronny pitched every game for the unbeaten Portland Avenue boys' team, winning 13 straight games last season and eight straight this year. He will be graduated this month.

HOLY ROSARY, under the direction of the Rev. John S. Whalen, came from behind in a spirited fashion to reach the finals after losing a game to the scrappy team from St. Lucy's 10 to 9. The Lexington Avenue nine disposed of Corpus Christi 13 to 8 and then overcame an 8-run advantage by St. Lucy's to eliminate the Troup Street squad, 23 to 19. St. Andrew's meanwhile had taken the measure of Corpus Christi, 8 to 6 and St. Lucy 1 to 0.

Closeness of the game scores indicated a well-balanced league this year which could not quite overcome the pitching superiority of Gerew. The league commencing 21 parochial schools divided into four divisions, is under the sponsorship of the Rochester Deaconry Holy Name Union.

Noted Jesuit is 70 London (N.C.) The Rev. C. Martindale, S.J., well-known throughout the English-speaking world has celebrated his 70th birthday.

Active in the affairs of St. Thomas Church, he kept his interest in the parish of his boyhood, St. Peter and Paul in which church because of its capacity the largely attended funeral services were held.
