Harold Bittner Rites Conducted

Solemn Requiem Mass for Harold P. Bittner, 41, well-known Rochester publisher who was the victim of a boating accident in Irondequoit Bay Saturday morning, June 18, 1949 was offered Tuesday morning in Old St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Dr. George F. Kettel offered the Mass, assisted by the Rev. Francis Hester, deacon, and the Rev. Magr. Joseph E. Grady, subdeacon. In the sanctuary was the Rev. Andrew W. Teuschel.

Bittner, who was publisher of the Irondequoit Press, was swept into the Bay waters off the stern of his fast outboard runabout as he knelt making repairs to the boat's propeller. He was drowned after he failed to grasp the life preservers tossed to him by the other occupants.

An active participant in civic and social affairs, Bittner was associated with the Irondequoit Press for about four years. He took over that weekly, together with the Greece Press and the Gates-Chill Press a year ago as Harold P. Bittner, Inc. He was previously employed by the Todd Company and had been in the insurance business at one time.

Surviving her his wife, Verna Bittner, one daughter, Mrs. George Styms, one son, Donald J. Bittner, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bittner, four brothers, Clarence, Arthur, Francis, of Rochester and Robert of Memphis, three sisters, Mrs. George Keister of West Henrietta, Mrs. Frank Hock and Lillian Bittner, several nieces and nephews.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.
