New Coach Tells HNS Of Aquinas Fall Grid Plans

Several sophomores and juniors are expected to play on the Aquinas gridiron squad this Fall, with the aim to build well for future seasons, according to Harry (Mickey) Connolly, new coach at the Dewey Avenue Institute.

Connolly told members of the St. Andrew's Holy Name Society Sunday at his first public address since his appointment, that he believes the cooperative spirit at Aquinas augurs another successful football season.

VALUE OF ATHLETICS in breaking down religious and racial prejudices was stressed by the former star halfback of Boston College, who was named recently to succeed Harry Wright as head coach at Aquinas. He listed other benefits as the teaching of cooperation, disregard for petty injuries and difficulties, and conditioning of the body.

Officers of the Holy Name Society, headed by President Frank J. Lange, were re-elected for another term at the breakfast meeting. They include: Arthur Sander, vice-president; Lawrence Edenhof, recording secretary; Urban Kress, financial secretary; John Lang Jr., treasurer; Fred Frisch, marshal and John H. Berger and Walter Ber, delegates to the Deanery Union.
