First Diocesan

Celebrating his first solemn high Mass in St. Peter Claver's Church, Brooklyn, is the Rev. William J. Rodgers, first Negro priest to be ordained for the Diocese of Brooklyn. He is a graduate of Cathedral College, Brooklyn, and the Immaculate Conception Seminary, Huntington, Long Island.

Senators Hear Catholic Views On Health Plan

Washington (NC) - Officials of two national Catholic organizations operating in the field of health have testified before a Senate group in opposition to the Truman Administration's compulsory health insurance proposals.
They are Msgr. George Lewis Smith, president of the Catholic Hospital Association of the United States and Canada, and the Rev. Donald A. McGowan, director of the Bureau of Health and Hospitals of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

Hungary Priest 'Taken for Ride'

Brussels (CIP) - The story of what happens to a priest who is nationally known for his opposition to Communism when his country is taken over by the Communist Party was told in a letter received by CIP from Hungary.
Victim was Father Jeno Kerkai, S.J., known throughout Hungary for his activities in the National Organization of Young Catholic Farmers (KALOT) which once numbered hundreds of thousands of members, and for his lectures on the evils of atheistic Communism.

New York Plans Rome Pilgrimage

New York (NC) - His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, will lead 1,000 pilgrims in one of the major U. S. Holy Year pilgrimages to Rome in 1950. It has been announced here. The pilgrimage will leave New York on the S. S. Atlantic in February.
It was also announced that Bishop Stephen J. Doran, Auxiliary of New York, will lead a second official archdiocesan pilgrimage to Rome in September, 1950. Arrangements for both trips are being handled by the American Express - Catholic Travel League.

Workers Give Hour's Wage To Missions

The Hague (CIP) - The need for supporting the Catholic foreign missions was dramatized in the Dutch city of Tilburg on June 7 when thousands of Catholics worked an extra hour and contributed the wages to the mission cause. The employers promised to match the contribution of the workers guild for guilders. While the men were working the extra hour, women and children flocked into the churches of Tilburg and the surrounding area to pray for the missions.
