'Bones' Reveal Vocation Clues

Agass, Guam — (NC) — To those high school graduates on Guam who wonder whether they have a religious vocation, the Catholic publication Ursum 81 Yuus offers this advice:

"All you need is Three Reasons:
(1) A wishbone! You must sincerely wish to become a priest, a sister or a lay brother.
(2) A backbone! You need a strong will to keep good; an active mind to learn and do things; proper health to live that life.
(3) A funnybone! This means, have a sense of humor; see the pleasant side of life; when hard duties come, cheerfully grin and 'take it on the chin,' and do it all for God."

Needy In Germany Thank Rochester Benefactors

Pitiful stories of destitution and growing want in Germany highlight recent letters of gratitude for bundles of Rochester clothing, according to Harold J. Coleman, president of the Will Corporation, whose firm has packed and shipped overseas donations of Rochesterians for several years.

"A deeply grateful note from a convent in Junkeradorf near Cologne," said Mr. Coleman, "reported that the depreciation of German money had made 'most of the people wholly destitute.'"

"This correspondent said 'Many old people commit suicide each day here being very desperate.'"

RENEWING HIS company's offer to pay all expenses of packing and shipping relief bundles of clothing, he said that overseas needs are as great as ever. "The touching letters of thanks reveal how Europe needs our charity."

Mr. Coleman told the Courier Journal that any articles of clothing collected in Rochester for overseas relief will be packed and shipped free of charge by his company if they are delivered to the shipping roof of the Will Corporation, 39 Russell St. (off University Ave.)

The cartons are sent to the New York warehouse of the National Catholic Welfare Confer-address," he said, "we will assist them. And if they have no means of transportation for their bundles we will arrange to have the articles picked up at their home."
