

TOWARD INDUSTRIAL PEACE

Impressions of Our Neighbor to the North

By Richard M. McKee, S. J.

In the late spring of this year we were invited to conduct a two-week seminar in industrial relations at Cornell University...

This settlement maintained a record of cooperation and mutual understanding which has prevailed in the steel industry for the past sixty-five years...

Editorials Decent Respect—Or An Iron Curtain The Barben Bill Is Not Americanism We Are Purchased with a Great Price By Mrs. William M. Hart

A Decent Respect This is what the Continental Congress in 1776 had in mind in signing the Declaration of Independence...

WHAT'S RIGHT WITH THE WORLD? Give Russia Enough Rope And She'll Hang Herself

By Rev. James M. Gillis, C.S.P.

The opinion was presented in this space a week ago that we need not fight Russia; that she is her own worst enemy...

Fr. Gillis

Let us add now that if none the less we do fight Russia and defeat her, our victory and her defeat may be to the advantage of Communism...

Capitalism, inefficient as it may be, is a thousand times more efficient than Communism...

THE TOP OF MY MIND

By Gretta Palmer

It is significant of modern modes of thought to find Alger Hiss lawyer putting a psychiatrist in the courtroom...

back to Descartes with his attempt to contain the universe within the mind of man...

Truth, Nowadays, Must Pay Her Way

"It can't hurt anybody," and betray the God of Truth with a small shrug...

WOMEN'S VIEWPOINT Shove Over, Picasso Here Comes Junior

By Marie Weidman

Any July now someone's little Arabella or Gregory will spring from one of the children's free summer art classes...

ter, with a cultured howl retreats behind his blue tree...

DEAR REPRESENTATIVE

An 'Open Letter' from Two Jims to Rep. Barden

By An Elmira Reader

My hands on. Maybe it was because of him that I was always a "softy for strays"...

school, Catholic, to be exact. So I'm writing to apologize to you, Representative Barden...

More Decent Respect

We need today in free America a little more decent respect for the opinions of mankind that marked the founding fathers...

HE THREW STONES AT NUNS

Reprinted from the 'Father Matthew Record'

"Black devils, black devils," he shouted as he left from behind a hedge and threw stones at two nuns...

One of his books, "Radio Replies," was published about 16 years ago...

Courier Journal

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE ROCHESTER DIOCESE Vol. 21—No. 27 Thursday, July 7, 1949