Miss Eleanor Sullivan Wed To W. A. Bramer Of Clyde

Stanley — Miss Eleanor Frances Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Sullivan, became the bride of William Arthur Bramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Bramer of Clyde, Tuesday at 11 a. m. in St. Theresa's church, on the 27th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Rev. Leo E. Hastings, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony and also celebrated the nuptial mass.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Mary Nelson gave a half hour organ recital and sang Shubert's "Ave Maria." During the nuptial mass hymns were sung, including "Panis Angelicus" by Cesar Franck.

Miss Margaret M. Sullivan, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Miss Sullivan wore a lime green brocaded silk gown, made off shoulder neckline, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt, with matching mitts. Her large open crown picture hat was of lime green lace and she carried lemon Shasta daisies and variegated ivy.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary J. Bramer, of Clyde, sister of the groom, Miss Helen Walsh of Canandaigua, and Mrs. Alexander Bentley Jr., of Geneseo, college roomates of the bride.

Ralph Bramer, of Clyde, was best man for his brother. Ushers were James E. Sullivan Jr., brother of the bride, Harold Bramer, brother of the bridegroom and Thomas Healy Jr., of Newark.

IN THE SANCTUARY were Rev. Edward K. Ball, Rev. Michael C. Wall, Rev. Raymond P. Nolan, Rev. John Guy, Rev. Joseph V. Curtin, Rev. John Brill, Rev. Charles I. Sullivan, Rev. Robert Fennessey, Rev. William J. Ayers, Rev. John Duffy, Rev. Paul Cuddy, Rev. Philip McGhan, Rev. Ralph Meyers and Father Stephen.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at Club 86 in Geneva, after which the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip through the mountains and Thousand Islands and Canada. They will make their home in Clyde.

The bride, a Clyde Central school faculty member, is a graduate of Geneseo State Teachers' college, where she was affiliated with Alpha Kappa Phi sorority. Mr. Bramer, World War II veteran, is postmaster of Clyde, secretary of the Clyde Chamber of Commerce and an officer of Seventh district and Wayne county 40 and 8 American Legion and Rochester newspaper correspondent.

Pre-nuptial events included a variety shower by Mrs. Pearl Lawton, Mrs. Ann Prue and Mrs. Alexander Bentley Jr., of Geneseo, a linen shower by Mrs. Michael Bolger of Stanley, a luncheon and shower by faculty members of Clyde Central school, a personal shower by Misses Isabel and Theresa Murphy of Stanley, a linen shower by Mrs. Emmett Dallor and Mrs. Leonard Lambert of Stanley, and a luncheon by Mrs. Lewis A. Moran of Geneva, a dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Frantz of Clyde. The bridal party were entertained at the bride's home Sunday afternoon, following rehearsal.

Wedding guests were present from Clyde, Cortland, Buffalo, Springbrook, Rochester, Canandaigua, Geneva, Auburn, Aurora, Montezuma, Romulus, Elmira and Massachusetts.
