Nazi Killings Stuttgart, Germany (NC)-

It is about time that the publie became aware of the persistems efforts the Catholic Church made during the nazi regime to avert the tragedles of euthanasia, the Episcopal Ordinariate of Rottenburg has in a statement. It was baued in connection with the triais of naul cuthanasia "killers" in progress at Tue bingen, near here.

Church Recalls

Its Fight On

A meilical defendant had remarked at Tuebingen that the crimes committed at the institution of Grafneck, where thousands of insane and other patients were "liquidated" by order of nazi chieftains, might have been prevented had the Church taken a firmer atand.

The defendant seems to ignore, says the Rottenburg statement, that the German Hierarchy as a whole, as well as the Bishops of Berlin, Muchater, Treves, Limburg. Munich, Rottenburg and Freiburg individually repeated interorded on behalf of the victims of nazi barbariam, and that Catholic institutions did everything in their power to mve the lives of their patients.
