Pre-Marriage Courses Seen Growing in Many Dioceses

Washington (NC) — Preparation for marriage is becoming more and more an active concern of the Church in this country.

Girl's Cure Credited To Fatima Prayer

Lubbock (NC) — The cure of a 13-year-old girl, suffering from acute pleurisy, has been reported in connection with the pilgrimage of a statue of Our Lady of Fatima through the Braganza diocese in northwest Portugal.

SPENCER TRACY'S WIFE

In Washington, to lecture before the Summer School of Catholic University, Mrs. Spencer Tracy wife of the Hollywood actor, is interviewed over the radio by the Rev. Francis T. Williams, C.S.V., director of the Institute for the Preparation of Teachers for the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing.

Women's Viewpoint Drive My Cars Away

Where our age is headed is a matter of serious conjecture for our heavy thinkers; how we get there seems to be the concern of the purveyors of ancient automobiles known in the vernacular as used car dealers.

Choice Food In Cool Comfort at SPARE-RIB

Temping dishes, generous portions, and for the grownups, delightful cocktails, tea. PURCHASING a used car is not a matter to be launched lightly. It requires perspicacity, perseverance and ability to withstand the blandishments of Genial Joe.

At Our House A Firm Is Born

Although we don't graduate from Georgetown University until next year, a classmate, George Burns, and I could probably give a good prediction about what our commencement speaker is going to say.

AS A RESULT, at the drop of a tassled-cap we can deliver a five or fifty five minute speech filled with the choicest of cliches gleaned from the best speakers our graduation ceremonies had to offer.

So should next year's speakers want to take notes from any of our speakers we would be glad to furnish them.

Irish Broadcast Angelus Bells... Dublin (RNS) Radio Eireann Ireland's national broadcasting station, has made arrangements to broadcast the tolling of the Angelus bells from the Roman Catholic Pro-Cathedral here each evening at six o'clock.

While Mary Tinley Daly is on vacation, other members of the family will report on Daly doings.

fore the ceremonies were over. Sometimes complications arose when the usually long-winded speaker ran short of breath or we had to travel too far to meet the schedule.

THE PRIDE of ownership is a thrilling, exhilarating thing. You drive off Sam's lot with your red refugee from the Smithsonian, heart pounding with pleasure.

Quickly other noises appear in the motor. Gone is the contented purr and in its place is a disconcerted jangle and other symptoms of mechanical malaise.
