German Societies Plan Relief Day

Continued need of relief by persons in Germany will be stressed at the annual German Day for German Relief outing scheduled at 2 p.m. Sunday Aug. 14, in Schutzen Park, Ridge Rd. East at Clinton Avenue

Sponsoring the program is the Federation of German-American Societies of Rochester, which includes the Catholic Kolping Society and the Catholic Central Verein.

FOLK DANCES and songs entertainment and a 20-piece band concert are on the program. William Wittman, delegate from the Kolping Society, is president of the Federation. Leo Saeum, Kolping Society president, is general chairman of the Aug 14 outing. Proceeds will be channeled into various relief groups.

In a recent letter to the Kolping Society, the Very Rev. Arthur Kolodziej of Wedel-Holstein states that many Americans have an impression that German relief no longer is necessary. He stresses that conditions still are desperate, especially for the numberless expellees and displaced persons.
