WOMAN'S VIEWPOINT

By Marie Weidman

There was nary a disquieting ripple on the limpid waters of our lethargy the other day when the Holy Father...

WE SEEK TO be inured to our Pope's solemn warnings about the menacing materialism of our days and its threat to our youth...

Holy Father Calls Women To Pilot World Thru Fog

With women becoming more and more dominant, as more ladies wear more slacks and talk in louder tones, their power and influence for good increases proportionately...

IN THIS decade we have had to meet serious juvenile delinquency problems and the shocking statistics on our country's marriages are well known and often quoted...

In the rush for rights we have neglected the accompanying duties. Amid the shrill female clamor for attention, lady-like demeanor has all but disappeared...

Women are quite aware of their wide influence and so is the Holy Father. He knows what we are capable of, either as a force for good or evil...

WE ARE NOT a nation of men and women, it seems, but rather a nation of women and their husbands. The ladies, from their pedestal of nationally advertised soap...

But perhaps the gentlemen, weary and has-riden, have placed the ladies on these low altitude niches in the name of general peace and quiet.

The point however, is that

Ex-Deputy WarChaplain Chief Dies

MONSIGNOR CLEARY

Washington — (NC) — Monsignor William D. Cleary, retired Deputy Chief of the U. S. Army's Chaplains Corps, has died at Walter Reed Hospital here at the age of 67.

The priest served 23 years as an Army chaplain and attained the rank of Brigadier General before his retirement in April, 1946. He was attached to the Brooklyn diocese.

He was born in Ireland and educated there, but was ordained to the priesthood in 1908 at the College des Irlandais in Paris. He served three parishes in Brooklyn until August, 1918, when he received his Army appointment. Monsignor Cleary organized and established the Army's Chaplain School, first at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., then at Harvard University, and later at Ft. Devens, Mass.

Mrs. Scheible, Nun's Kin, Dies

Funeral of Mrs. Florence Servattus Scheible, 31 Cayuga St., mother of a nun, was conducted Monday, Aug. 1, 1949 in St. Boniface Church with the Rev. Walter Kohl offering the Requiem Mass.

Mrs. Scheible died suddenly Friday, July 29, 1949 in Highland Hospital.

In the sanctuary at the Mass were the Reverend Fathers E. Charles Bauer, Francis J. Taylor and Dominic Mokevicius. Seminars from the parish made up the choir. Services in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery were conducted by Fathers Mokevicius and Bauer.

Mrs. Scheible was a member of the Sacred Heart and Rosary societies of St. Boniface Parish and the Ladies Auxiliary 286, Knights of St. John of St. Michael's Parish.

Surviving are her husband Anthony E. Scheible, two daughters, Mrs. John M. Reinhardt Jr., and Sister John Joseph of the Hospital Sisters of St. Francis, Springfield, Ill., mother Mrs. Anna Servattus, two sisters, Mrs. Victor Tallman and Mrs. Julia Swanson; and two granddaughters.
