11 Franciscans Named to Faculty Of Padua High

Watkins Glen—Faculty members to staff St. Anthony High School were appointed at a provincial chapter held June 15, 1949 at Pulaski, Wis.

THEY ARE: Father Claude Zabinski, O.F.M., rector and principal; Father George Duhowski, O.F.M., vice-rector; Father Sylvester Makarewicz, O.F.M., disciplinarian; Father Emmanuel Modzik, O.F.M., vice-disciplinarian.

Resident at the monastery adjacent to St. Anthony's and serving in the capacity of professor are: Father Henry Naparia, O.F.M., superior; Father Dismas Treder, O.F.M., assistant superior; Father Luke Fedke, O.F.M.; Father Edwin Hrupok, O.F.M.; Father Maribel Lecnar, O.F.M., treasurer; Father Stanislaus Nidzwiecki, O.F.M., librarian.

Each member of the faculty has been encouraged to specialize in a separate branch of the high school curriculum.

Attendance at summer and regular sessions of various universities has enabled the professors at St. Anthony's to gain the prestige and to show their qualifications for the task at hand.

Guardian

Rev. Henry Naparia, O.F.M. is Guardian at the Franciscan Friary of St. Anthony's Minor Seminary and (Padua) High School in Watkins Glen former Glen Springs.

Worked 91 Years

London — (NO) — Mrs. Margaret Prior, born in County Mayo, Ire. and for 40 years a winder in a Lancashire cotton mill, has died after a few weeks' illness at the age of 101. Mrs. Prior, whose only disability up to her last illness was a slight deafness, was a member of St. Ignace parish, Preston, Lancashire. She began work as a maid-servant before the age of 10.

Glen Hotel Famed For Its Guests

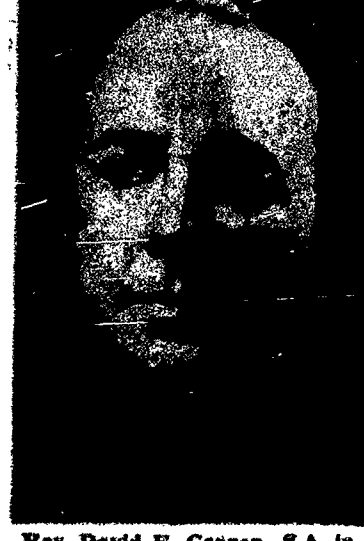

Watkins Glen—Glen Springs Hotel was erected around 1870 by the late Judge George S. Freer. In 1897 it became formally the Glen Springs, additions were constructed over the years.

Celebrities came to the hotel during its golden era. They included the late John D. Rockefeller, T. Prince Otto, pretender to the Hapsburg throne, Gen. John J. Pershing, Earl Carroll, Frances Perkins, ex-vicepresident Charles Curtis, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Alfred E. Smith, and James A. Farley.

Hit by the depression and wartime restrictions, the hotel closed its doors during World War II. After extensive repairs it was reopened in 1946 as an emergency housing project for Cornell students and their families. Cornell University used it one year.

Major William Leffingwell of the United States from Washington, D. C., an attache Athens, Greece, to complete the London embassy and Glen negotiations.

Guardian

Rev. David F. Gannon, S.A. is Guardian at St. John's Alowment Seminary opening in the former Cook Academy, Montour Falls on Nov. 28.

Springs' Corp. president, came to the United States from Washington, D. C., an attache Athens, Greece, to complete the London embassy and Glen negotiations.

Superior Thanks All Who Cooperated

"Nor can we pass over in silence the helping hand extended to us by the reverend clergy of the diocese. Pastors of neighboring parishes manifest their hearty support of our project by visiting the school with boys of high school age to interest them in our institution. "In particular we are humbly grateful for all the kindnesses we have received from the Rt. Rev. Joseph A. Balcerak, pastor of St. Stanislaus parish, Rochester."

"According to matriculation records, many boys from the

"The former Glen Springs farm will be operated as a separate unit helping to sustain the students. Work is being rushed to replace the farm buildings which burned down after a bolt of lightning struck them.

"Modern farm equipment, a herd of pure bred cattle, and scientific dairy methods will all be under the direction of the Rev. Dismas Treder, O.F.M., now completing his course in agriculture at the University of Wisconsin."

"Other projects in the long range reconversion plan at St. Anthony High School will be considered at the time when the respective developments will be most opportune."
