Fr. Cullinane Assumes Duties As Aquinas Head

The Rev. Eugene A. Cullinane, C.S.B.; M. A., came to Rochester this week from St. Michael's College, Toronto, to take up his duties as new principal of Aquinas Institute.

Father Cullinane, who as a layman taught for one year at St. Andrew's Seminary here in 1931, succeeds the Rev. William J. Duggan, C. S. B., as head of the Dewey Avenue high school.

Father Duggan, principal for the last three years, has succeeded the Rev. Hugh B. Haffey, C. S. B., as executive director of the new St. John Fisher College and director of the Aquinas Memorial Stadium. Father Haffey is being transferred by the Basilian superior general to assist in a new project in Detroit.

Michigan-born Father Cullinane studied at St. Basil's Seminary, Toronto, and was ordained in that city in 1938. After three years' postgraduate study in economics and sociology at Catholic University he taught these subjects at St. Thomas More College, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada.

From 1942 to 1945 the Basilian priest was a chaplain in the Royal Canadian Air Force, but did not get overseas. He then rejoined the faculty at St. Thomas College until last year, when he was transferred to St. Michael's in Toronto.

Holy Ghost who left Rochester in August 1945 to serve in African missions.

"What we want most is books for girls from ages 12 to 18," Sister writes. "Story books will be most welcome. Books need not necessarily be new; but there must be good bindings and above all good reading for the girls."

In her appeal, Sister Jane stated that perhaps some schools would have some extras. "We would appreciate this favor for the missions and I can assure you the girls will not forget to pray for their benefactors."

Catholic literature for the school library may be sent to Brigid and St. Philip Neri.

Members of the National Holy

Year Pilgrimage to Rome will start from New York, December

10 in the R.M.S. Queen Mary of Cunard White Star Line, to be present at the initial ceremonies of the Holy Year. It was announced last night by American
