

Ann Whoolley Wed to John R. Anderson

Geneva - Miss Ann M. Whoolley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Whoolley of 258 North Pleasant St., Canandaigua, and John Richard Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Anderson, 424 1/2 Main St., Geneva, were married Aug. 23 in St. Mary's Church at Canandaigua.

Drive for New Parish Buildings Set Sept. 12

Immediate construction of a combination church-hall and a 18-room school will be the goal of building fund campaign slated Sept. 12-16 in the new St. James, the Apostle parish, Irondequoit, according to the Rev. Francis M. Feeney, pastor.

Peter E. Sherrett, 234 Hurstbourne Rd., general chairman of the drive, announced that the aim will be pledges of $200 per family. Sherrett announced special meetings for all campaign workers on Tuesday nights, Aug. 30 and Sept. 6, at 8 p. m. in St. Ambrose Church hall, Empire Boulevard.

Ground Broken By Bishop For Mercy Chapel

Blessing of God on an expansion project of the Sisters of Mercy was asked by His Excellency Bishop Kearney at ground-breaking ceremonies Sunday for a $200,000 chapel building addition to Our Lady of Mercy Motherhouse, Blossom Road.

Recalling that the chapel construction had been twice previously deferred in favor of enlargement of the adjoining Mercy High School facilities, Bishop Kearney paid tribute to the self-sacrifice of the Sisters and to their contributions to the community.

Ground Turned For Sisters' Chapel

Wielding the shovel, His Excellency Bishop Kearney breaks ground on site where the new Sisters of Mercy Chapel will rise in rear of the Motherhouse. Watching ceremony are the Rev. Dr. John E. Maney, Bishop's secretary (right) and Sisters of Mercy in background.

Genevans Meet For Dannahae Family Reunion

Geneva - About 40 Genevans attended the 2nd annual reunion of the Dannahae family on Sunday at the William Dannahae farm on Algerie St., town of Hopewell. Ninety-two members of the family were present for the event.

A picnic dinner was served at 2 p. m. followed by an entertainment program including a baseball game and other features. A group of 18 members attended from New York City, and other members of the family were present from Pennsylvania, Niagara Falls, Syracuse, Buffalo, Geneva, and Canandaigua.

Home Town Market... Phone 300

Webster's Dairy Bar advertisement featuring quality ice cream and various flavors like Vanilla, Chocolate, Strawberry, and Butter Pecan.

St. Francis of Assisi church advertisement listing mass times and contact information.

Fred Roseland's General Electric Appliances advertisement.

The Osborne Hotel advertisement listing amenities and contact info.

St. Alphonsus church advertisement listing mass times.

O'Donnell & Cotter Heating & Plumbing advertisement.

Whiting's Wallpaper and Paints advertisement.

M. D. Greene Lumber Co. advertisement.

Dairy Lea milk advertisement.

American Taxi advertisement.

Hai's Liquor Store advertisement.

Prescriptions advertisement.

You can say your Rosary daily in 10 minutes advertisement.

St. Mary's church advertisement.

Green Dairy advertisement.

Kidney Liquor Store advertisement.

Five Points Store advertisement.

W. A. Fulton Jeweler advertisement.

Country Service advertisement.

Country Service advertisement.

Mary F. Robinson Wed in Geneva

Geneva - Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, 23 North Ave., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary F. Robinson, to Frederick L. Fabrizi, son of Mrs. Rosa Fabrizi, 23 N. Geneva St. Mr. Fabrizi is a local attorney.

Trained Bears Set At Roseland

Three big, brown bears who cavort and play and appear to be as docile as kittens at play, will thrill visitors to Roseland Park, Canandaigua next week with their remarkable and varied tricks.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours are scheduled in the following churches of the Rochester Diocese: Friday, Sept. 2 - Perkinville.

Auburn Weddings

Solo-Matrimonial Auburn - The wedding of Miss Virginia Mastrolanni, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Mastrolanni, 89 Wall St., and Rocco F. Solo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mesurio Solo, 41 Orchard St., was solemnized on August 13 in St. Francis Church, by the Rev. John J. Nacco, pastor.

Rochester Nun Takes Franciscan Vows

Sister Anne Catherine of Rochester took her first vows in the Sisters of St. Francis at St. Elizabeth's Convent on August 13, Feast of the Assumption. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. Aumock, 929 Post Ave., Rochester.

Owego Parish To Conduct Outing Sunday, Sept. 11

Owego - Annual St. Patrick's Parish Picnic will be held at Yarns' Grove, Sunday, Sept. 11. It was announced following a meeting held August 17. Plans have been made for games and events to take place throughout the day.

Americans To Follow Early Rome Pilgrims

American Catholics attending the impressive ceremonies in Rome on Christmas Eve at the opening of the Holy Doors at the four major Basilicas, inaugurating the 1950 Holy Year will follow in the footsteps of notable early day pilgrims such as Dante, St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis, Michelangelo, St. Bridgid and St. Philip Neri.

Bishop Urges Devotion to Immaculate Heart of Mary

Approximately 80 persons joined His Excellency Bishop Kearney in recitation of the rosary and an act of consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary celebrating the feast-day Monday in the garden of the Cenacle Retreat House, East Avenue.

Fr. Lalor To Take Helm At St. Bona's

Very Rev. Juvenal Lalor, O.F.M., will be formally installed as St. Bonaventure College's president on Thursday, September 22. It was disclosed today by college officials.

Senator Denies DP Law Hurts Catholics

Washington - (RNS) - Senator Pat McCarran, Nevada Democrat and chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, denied here that the present Displaced Persons law discriminates against Roman Catholics or Jews.

At The Pope's Summer Home

The Holy Father Pope Pius XII, from the balcony of his summer home at Castel Gandolfo, near Rome, blesses the crowds assembled below. Children from the summer camps conducted by the Pontifical Assistance Committee are shown carrying banners greeting the Holy Father.

St. Mary Sodalists Attend Action School

Officers of St. Mary's Sodality of Elmira are attending this week's session of the Summer School of Catholic Action being conducted at Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.

Churches Crowded In Red Budapest

Budapest - (NC) - Despite the fact that Sunday Masses are held from five in the morning until nine at night except for an afternoon interval, Budapest's 159 churches and chapels are insufficient to adequately accommodate the vast crowds that seek the consolation of religion.

First Degree Held By Corning K. C.

Corning - Two candidates received the first degree in the Corning Council Knights of Columbus at the K of C Home. They were Joseph Paris and Robert Box.

Senators Denies DP Law Hurts Catholics

Washington - (RNS) - Senator Pat McCarran, Nevada Democrat and chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, denied here that the present Displaced Persons law discriminates against Roman Catholics or Jews.

St. Stephen's church advertisement.

St. Stephen's church advertisement listing mass times.

Lynch Furniture Co. advertisement.

St. Anthony Men Set Joint Picnic

Annual combined outing of the Sacred Heart Men and Holy Name members of St. Anthony's parish, Elmira, will be held on Sunday, Sept. 4 at Sullivan's Monument Park.

NEW CHAPLAIN

The Rev. Alvin Hammen, O.S.B., dean of men at St. Benedict's College, Atchison, Kansas, is the new chaplain of the Midwest region of a national Federation of Catholic College students.

Keilty Dry Goods Co. advertisement.

Howard Liquor Store advertisement.

Hotel Seneca advertisement.

Finger Lakes Memorials advertisement.

Finger Lakes Memorials advertisement.

Pray advertisement.

Finger Lakes Memorials advertisement.

Pray advertisement.

St. Francis de Sales church advertisement.

St. Francis de Sales church advertisement.

Baker & Stark Inc. advertisement.

Geneva Milk Company advertisement.

STOP at a COURIER JOURNAL Advertiser Today advertisement.

The New Seneca Shop advertisement.