Business Leader John D. Roche Appointed 1949 CYA Membership Drive Chairman

John D. Roche, vice-president of the B. Forman Company, will head the eighteenth annual membership campaign of the Columbus Youth Association to be conducted from September 29 through October 11.

JOHN D. ROCHE

Announcement to this effect was made this week by the Very Rev. Magr. Gerald S. Lambert, director of Catholic Charities and the CYA.

A native of Marlboro, Mass. Roche was graduated from Boston College and served on the Aquinas Institute faculty before joining the B. Forman Company. He resides at 125 Castlebar Road with his wife and three sons, John, George and William and attends Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

He is president of the Clinton Avenue South Merchants Association, director of the Visiting Nurses Association, member of the Civic Development Council of the Chamber of Commerce and former chairman of the advertising group of the Retail Merchants Council.

ROCHE'S COMMUNITY activities also have included aid will direct the activities of more than 400 workers in the drive. Conferences are now being held for the selection of other campaign leaders.

Within the next few weeks chairmen of the Men and Women's Divisions as well as the Special Citizens' Committee will be selected. These chairmen, in turn, will name division leaders and team captains.

Emphasis in this year's campaign will be placed on the memberships to be obtained for deserving boys and girls who otherwise would be deprived of the CYA facilities. The bulk of this work will fall on the Citizens' Committee which is composed of leading laymen of the Jewish and Protestant as well as Catholic faiths.

Campaign headquarters will be opened next month in the lobby of the Columbus Civic Center. William T. Nolan, secretary of Catholic Charities, will again serve as campaign manager.

Magr. Lambert said that Roche

P. J. Cleary Rites Conducted in Lima

Solemn Requiem Mass for Patrick J. Cleary, 59 Gorsline St., Rochester, was offered Saturday, Aug. 27, in St. Rose Church, Lima, where he was born and baptized. Mr. Cleary died Thursday, Aug. 25, 1949.

Born Aug. 1, 1889, in the family homestead on Cleary Road, Mr. Cleary attended Dutch Hollow School and Genesee Wesleyan Seminary. In his youth he learned the cigar-making trade, and at the turn of the century he became proprietor of the old Eagle Hotel in Lake Ave., Lima.

Mr. Cleary's father and mother, John and Mary Ryan Cleary, were among the first Irish settlers to arrive in Lima, and assisted in founding St. Rose Church. Their son had been a lifelong member of the parish Holy Name Society since the early days of its founding.

For the last seven years Mr. Cleary had been a parishioner of Sacred Heart Church, Rochester.

Pallbearers were Thomas Gavin, Aloysius Malone, William Tubbs, George Leahy and William Preston.

Mr. Cleary is survived by a daughter, Mary Rose; a son, Joseph L., and two grandchildren, Colleen and Patricia Joan Cleary, all of Rochester.

Bagne Couples Mark Silver Jubilees

A pair of brothers who married sisters on the same day 25 years ago, celebrated their silver wedding anniversaries in Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church Saturday, August 27.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bagne and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bagne, the happy couples, assisted at an anniversary Mass at 10 o'clock that morning. A reception was held later at Honest John's Hall.

The brothers are both machinists. Frank lives at 1070 Joseph Avenue and works at the Dewey Avenue machine shop of the Department of Public Works. His wife is the former Florence Schaefer. John, who lives at 141 Seneca Avenue with his wife, Loretta Schaefer Nagne, is a machinist at Kodak Park. Both men are members of the OLPH Holy Name Society.

E. J. Costigan's Rites Conducted
