Annual Benefit Show Ticket Sale Launched by Firemen

Rochester firemen this week will launch a city-wide ticket campaign for their seventh annual benefit show. Proceeds from the benefit show will be used to replenish funds for the widows and orphans of Rochester firemen.

Five performances of the all-vaudeville bill will be presented at the Eastman Theater on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings, October 7, 8 and 9.

All five performances will be in the evening with one on Friday and two on Saturday and Sunday, according to Chief John A. Slattery, chairman of the Firemen's Committee.

A vaudeville bill, studded with stars of stage, screen and radio, is being rounded up by a committee headed by Lester L. Pollock. Deputy Chief James A. Murray and Captain Albert Hoesterey are serving as vice-chairmen of the committee.

In their ticket selling campaign, the firemen will visit homes and business establishments in the areas they regularly serve.

800 Delegates

Over five hundred schools and colleges were represented by 800 delegates to the 18th annual convention of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, held in Chicago, August 24-28. Mrs. Richard O. Auspitzer, Lawrence, Long Island, N. Y., is president and Miss Margaret Nolan, is general chairman of the convention. (N.C. Photos).

Father Hilbert Stays At Post In South China

The Rev. Charles P. Hilbert native of Rochester, is one of the Maryknoll Missioners now stationed in South China on the border of today's war zone. His post is in the town of Kaying Kwangtung Province.

Recent Communist advances into South China place Red troops only a few hundred miles north of Maryknoll Missions in Kwangtung and Kwangsi Provinces. The Communists are reported to be meeting little opposition. The Nationalist government already has ordered civilians in South China to be ready for evacuation orders.

MISSIONERS IN THE southern provinces are preparing for a long siege by stocking food, Mass wine, and other provisions. It has been a Communist practice in North China to hamper priests by placing severe restrictions on imports such as Mass wine.

During the Second World War, Maryknollers followed the traditional missionary policy of remaining at their posts unless direct combat enveloped their areas, forcing them to halt activities.

Father Hilbert has been in China since 1926, except for two furloughs in the United States. For the last four years he has been rector of the Seminary for Kaying Diocese.

Before entering Maryknoll, Father Hilbert attended St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries in Rochester.

cision was registered in a resolution adopted at Chicago by delegates to the International Opposition to "separation of religion from education" as legalized by the McCollum decision of the Federation of Catholic Alumnae convention.

The Catholic women, graduates of U. S. Catholic schools, also went on record as reiterating "determination to work for the realization of the ideal of 'every Catholic child in a Catholic school.'"

Miss Regina K. Kennedy of 35 Dorchester Rd., Rochester, who sat as chairman of the committee in the absence of Dr. Marie Madden of Brooklyn, wrote the resolution which was unanimously approved by the delegates.

The full statement read

"Whereas, the whole structure of western civilization is threatened by the inroads of materialism, secularism and atheism; and,

"Whereas, these false philosophies are invading the field of education from the elementary school to the university and thus inoculating our youth with doctrines that are contrary to the teaching of the Catholic Church, the real mother of our civilization;

"Be it resolved that the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae assembled in its 18th convention go on record as disapproving complete separation of religion from education as legalized by a decision of the Supreme Court and reiterate our determination to work toward realization of the ideal of 'every Catholic child in a Catholic school.'"

Adoption of the resolution sounded the keynote of the four-day convention, held Aug. 24 to 28 in Chicago's Drake Hotel. The fourteen Rochester women who traveled to the sessions, heard their own Bishop, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, urge the Catholic alumnae to "wage constant warfare in daily life against the enemies of God and the Church."

Bishop Kearney said that three qualities should characterize the Catholic women in her proper place in society: responsibility, dignity, and warfare. Every Catholic must live constantly at war with evil and indifference, said the Bishop. He also emphasized the characteristics of responsibility and dignity in the daily existence of a Catholic woman.

Miss Kennedy, who served as chairman of the convention's panel on education, told the delegates "Just because our ideals are in conformity with human nature, we cannot expect them to be assumed into the body politic by the process of osmosis." She represented Nazareth Academy Alumnae Association at the sessions.

The IFCA re elected the Rochester woman to the international executive board as chairman of the organization's Department of Education. Mrs. Walter Whelan of Milton, Mass., who is well-known in Rochester was named new international president.

Other Rochesterians who attended were: Mrs. Lewis J. Boyce, Nazareth College alumna and trustee of IFCA's New York Chapter, who was a mission panel speaker; the Misses Beverly McLaughlin of Our Lady of Mercy High School Alumnae Association, and Miss Rita Trost, Nazareth Academy Association, both speakers in the Mary's Day panel.

Also, Mrs. Frank Eaton, retiring regent of Rochester Circle, IFCA; Miss Zelda Lyons, new regent; Miss Rose Ferro, president of Nazareth College Alumnae Association; Mrs. Elizabeth Doyle Schwab, executive secretary of the college association; the Misses Norma and Jane Laragy, Nazareth Academy Association; and the Misses Jeanne Schneider and Adelaide Uligiati, Our Lady of Mercy Alumnae Association.

Two Sisters of Mercy, Sister Mary Jeanne and Sister Mary Irmina, of Mercy High School, accompanied the Rochester delegation.
