Silver Tea To Aid Negro Scholarship Fund Stated

Third annual scholarship fund tea of the Mother Cabrini Circle, which finances the education of several Negro students in Rochester's Catholic high schools, will be held Sunday, Sept. 18.

Mrs. Harriet Schuyler, general chairman, will receive members and well-wishers at the home of the circle, 343 Clarence Street, at 4 p. m. that day.

Proceeds from these teas go into a fund which pays tuition costs for Negro boys and girls attending Aquinas Institute and Our Lady of Mercy High School. The first girl sponsored by the group graduated in June from Mercy.

Six Win State Scholarships

Six Catholic High School students were among fifty in Monroe County awarded scholarships by the University of the State of New York, Department of Education, according to list released last week.

The scholarship holders will each receive $15 per term for eight terms of a course at any college in the state approved by the Board of Regents.

Winners are:
Aquinas Institute -- Thomas H. Green, 505 Seneca Parkway and Daniel R. Brent, 458 Flint St. (Brent is a member of the Catholic Courier Journal staff);
Nazareth Academy -- Eileen C. Conheady, 140 Curtis St. and Marjorie A. Klein, 35 Langford Rd.
Our Lady of Mercy High School -- Betty Perrin, 76 Berry St. and Mary L'Esperance, 97 Long Meadow Circle, Pittsford.

FIRST CHILDREN'S RETREAT

Among 38 girls who made the first children's retreat at the convent of the Kelligous of the Cenacle, Rochester, are the above three chatting with Retreat Master, the Rev. Lester M. Booley, S.V.D., noted author of Island Creek, Mass. The girls are: (from left) Diane Kolb, Holy Rosary parish; Bernadette Brons, Blessed Sacrament and Anne Delaire, Our Lady of Lourdes parish, Brighton.

Noted Retreat Masters Set For Devotions At Cenacle

A distinguished group of retreat masters, both locally and nationally known, will give conferences at the Retreat House of Our Lady of the Cenacle, East Avenue at Oxford, during September and October.

The Religious of the Cenacle announce:
Labor Day weekend, Sept. 2 to 5, a Jesuit Father, the Rev. John Paone, S.J., is scheduled. The Rev. Albert J. Shamon of Aquinas Institute's faculty, moderator of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, will give a retreat for young business women, September 16 to 18.

Other retreats include:
Sept. 23-25 -- Geneva Sodality and General, Rev. Edwin Haungs, S.J., retreat master.
Oct. 7-9 -- High School Retreat, Rev. Timothy O'Dwyer, S.J.
Oct. 14-16 -- Kodak Park Workers Employees, Rev. Richard McKean, S.J.
Oct. 28-30 -- St. Margaret Mary Altar Society.
The 1950 retreat schedule for the Cenacle is also being prepared. Mother Superior Angela Murphy urges all Catholic societies, sodalities, high school groups, Newman Clubs, interested in booking retreats for the coming year to contact her, at the Cenacle Convent, 693 East Avenue (Monroe 4666 or 4667).

School Mothers Set First Fall Meeting

First meeting of the season for the School Mothers Club of St. Salome's Parish will be held Wednesday, Sept. 7 at 8:30 p. m. in the school hall. Mrs. Robert Sullivan is chairman of the luncheon, assisted by the mothers of the third grade children.

B. H. Smith's Rites Held In Dansville

Dansville--Funeral services for Bernard H. Smith, were held here from the family residence 61 Franklin St., Tuesday, Aug. 30. Funeral Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Edward M. Scheidt, pastor, in St. Mary's Church.

Mr. Smith died suddenly Saturday, Aug. 27, 1949. He was 31 years of age. Born Feb. 7, 1918, he attended St. Mary's School, Dansville Central High School and Bryant-Stratton Business College, Buffalo. In 1940 after completing his course at the Syracuse School of Embalming, he joined his uncle, Harold P. Smith in conducting the Smith Funeral Home.

Mr. Smith was also in the insurance business for himself and represented the Allen Monument Works in Mt. Morris.

He was a member of the Dansville Council, Knights of Columbus and as chairman of the membership campaign brought Century Club honors to the council. He was also a member of the Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church, and a charter member of the Lions Club.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Smith of Dansville, a brother, Clement H., and several uncles and aunts.
