HNS Men Urged To Foster Sports For Catholic Boys

Greater interest of Holy Name Society members in sponsorship of athletic programs for Catholic boys was urged Sunday in an address by the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, editor of the Catholic Courier Journal.

Father Flynn, spiritual director of the Diocesan Holy Name Union, was principal speaker at the monthly Communion breakfast of the St. Andrew's Holy Name Society, at which members of the St. Andrew's ball team, champions of the Holy Name Parochial School Softball League, were guests.

The technique of interesting youth through promotion of sports programs for them should not be left to secular institutions, Father Flynn noted. He congratulated the St. Andrew's men for their fine support of their parochial school team.

Presentation of the league championship cup was made to Team Captain "Ronnie" Garow, star pitcher, by Arthur P. Farren executive secretary of the Diocesan Union, in the name of the Rochester Diocese which sponsors the 24-team league. Frank J. Lange, St. Andrew's Holy Name president, gave each team member a baseball lapel pin. Pins also were given to the father-son team coaches, Joseph Gerow Sr. and Joseph Gerow Jr.
