

Gymnasium Named For Negro Woman

Work has been started on the new structure to house the 1700-member congregation of the Central Church of Negro parish which will be named for Mrs. Margaret Plater, who last spring received the Papal medal Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice, believed here to be the first Negro woman in the country to be thus honored.

Mrs. Plater began her work more than 40 years ago serving as parish organist, instructing children in catechism and inducing many fallen-away Negro Catholics to return to the faith. She was instrumental in the founding of Sacred Heart parish.

Wandering Polish Orphans Seek New Homes in Canada

Walter, Nova Scotia. — (NC) — A group of 123 Polish youngsters ranging in age from 10 to 20 years, one of the last groups of Polish orphans from Siberia and other parts of Asiatic Russia, departed from the U. S. Army Transport General Heintzelman, hopeful that they were on the last lap after ten years of wandering over the earth.

THEY ARE but a small part of the countless thousands of Polish children who were made orphans when the Soviet Russians deported between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000 Poles to Siberia in 1939 and 1940 the days when Poland was under Nazi-communist domination. Their parents were made slave laborers and many died from exposure and hunger.

When Hitler abrogated his pact by the invasion of Russia, the youngsters were allowed freedom of movement and started almost unbelievable treks to safety. Eventually some reached Africa. A group of 600 of the Polish orphans were assembled in a camp in Turkistan, Asiatic Russia, and brought by way of Persia to East Africa, where they were cared for by War Relief Services. — National Catholic Welfare Conference and the International Refugee Organizations.

MRS. EUGENIA GROSICKA, a Polish woman, banded the 680 together, many of them near death, and remained with them until those emigration plans were at long last completed. Only when the last of the youngsters left camp did Mrs. Grosicka depart to join her Polish exiled son in England.

Miss Dorothy Sullivan of the Catholic Immigrant Aid Society of Canada arranged for Canadian visas for the youngsters. They were brought from the camp in Tangiers to a transit camp in Salerno, Italy where Miss Sullivan met them, and then were taken to a staging area for DP's in Bremen. Next it was Brombeaven and the boat for the New World and new opportunity.

In Canada the youngsters were received by a committee headed by Archbishop Joseph Charbonneau of Montreal. It is hoped that most of the youngsters eventually will be adopted by private Catholic families. Father Lucien Krolkowaki, a Franciscan from Warsaw, accompanied the youngsters from Germany to Canada. He also is a DP who was deported to Siberia and worked as a wood chopper.

At Our House Girls on Paper Route

Paper routes, it seems, are no longer a purely masculine prerogative. Or so we were told by Johnny who used to be a paper boy himself, and by Markie and Mary, temporary carriers for the paper in our neighborhood while Billy Corbett, the regular carrier, was on vacation.

They came home late for dinner on the first day — late but triumphant. "Just think," Markie announced proudly, "we've got six papers left!" That means we each can have our own copy of the funnies!

"Six over?" Johnny laid down his fork. "Say, don't you kids know that means 60 cents out of your pay? It's ten cents a complaint."

"Maybe they won't complain," Markie said nonchalantly. "And maybe the man made a mistake. He just tossed out a bunch."

"That man's been in the business 25 years," Johnny said, "and that bunch he tossed out was your exact quota. It's a lot more likely you made the mistake."

Protestant Teaching Banned In N. M. School

Santa Fe, N. M. (RNS) — Four Lindrieth, N. M. public school teachers who allegedly fostered the teaching of Protestant religious doctrines have been ordered by District Judge W. Carmody here to cease the practice, pending final hearing on a suit filed by two members of the district school board.

THE ORDER also affects the Rev. Estes M. Hardy, Baptist clergyman who serves as a member of the district school board in Rio Arriba County and Elias R. Stevenson, janitor.

According to the suit, the four teachers, Louis J. Cooper, principal of the Lindrieth school, Ethel Cooper, his wife, Theron Anderson and Lucille Weaver used denominational religious books in the school.

IT WAS ALSO charged that they distributed Baptist and Presbyterian publications to students during school hours, and took part in commencement exercises held in Presbyterian and Baptist churches.

Filed by school board members Amertill D. Miller and Paul Brown, the complaint further said the teachers led prayers of a sectarian and denominational nature at weekly assemblies of the students and that they permitted the preaching of religious sermons to the students.
