Doris Lowery Wed In Elmira Church

The marriage of Miss Doris Elaine Lowery and Robert Francis Besanceney was solemnized Saturday, Sept 3, 1949, at 11 o'clock in St. Mary's Church, Elmira.

The Rev James Lane performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Miss Loretta Ryan was the organist. Palms and vases of white gladioli decorated the altar.

Mrs. Harry Erway Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Another sister of the bride, Miss Helen Lowery, was flower girl.

Douglas Mitchell was best man and Harry Erway Jr. of Corning, Allan Mallette Jr., and Karl Stricker served as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lowery, 512 Liberty St. A reception for 200 was held from 2 to 6 o'clock.

The couple left by plane for an extended trip to Canada. Upon their return they will reside at 368 Rosewood Terrace, Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Besanceney attended Elmira school, the former being a graduate of the Veterans School. At present he is a student at Rochester Business Institute.

The bride was entertained before her marriage by the following: Mrs. Jack Tobey, Mrs. Violet Clayson, Mrs. Harry Erway, Mrs. Allan Mallette Jr., Mrs. Karl Stricker and Mrs. Irene Quackenbush.

Elmira Knights List N. Y. Judge

was made Vice President of the Centro Italo-American Di Solenza Medicho of Rome, Italy. In recognition of his effective relief work the people of San Marino, the Republic conferred on him in 1946, decoration of Knight Grand Ocerfficer of the Order of St. Agatha. The Italian Red Cross honored Judge Marchisio with the singular distinction of its Grand Cross of Merit.

After Judge Marchisio's recent mission to Italy in June of this year His Holiness Pope Pius XII included him in the Pontifical family by creating him Privy Chamberlain of Cape and Sword — an honor rarely accorded.

Judge Marchisio was born in Brooklyn on December 2, 1902, and is married to the former Rosina Lawrence. They have three children.

Grand Knight DeRenzo announces the following committee chairmen to make arrangements for the banquet:

Honorary chairman, the Rev. Albert L. Simonetti, pastor of St Anthony's Church; general committee co-chairmen, Edward F. Lagonegro and William J. Schiefen.

Chairman for Watkins Glen, John J. Frank; chairman for Ladies of Columbus, Mrs. John E. Strong.

Elmira Council extends an invitation to the public to attend. Knights and their ladies are expected from Binghamton, Endicott, Waverly, Corning, Ithaca, Watkins Glen and Hornell.

Police Warn of Night Driving

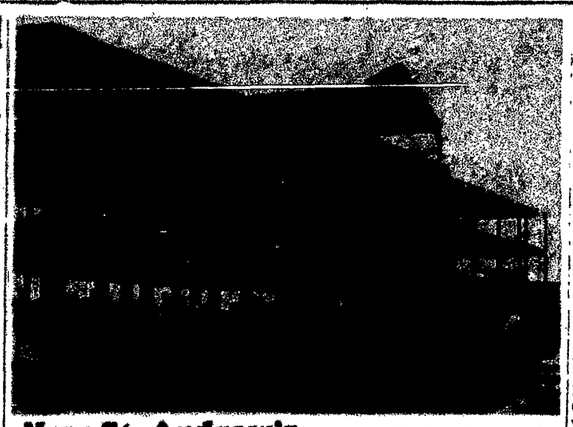
Night driving caution is contained in the October Traffic Safety Bulletin of Elmira Police Department.

The Bulletin states:

"Slow Down At Sundown!

"The fall season is now with us — it means more hours of night driving.

"Look Out when its Dark Out."



New St. Andrew's rising on Buffalo Road will be an E-shaped building with accommodations for 125 boarders and a faculty of 10 priests. Above view shows steel framework of the main building and workmen laying bricks for the auditorium-gymnasium wing. Construction will be completed by June, 1950. (Story on Page 1.)

Elmira Catholic Highlights

By REGINA BUSH

Wednesday, September 7th was a big day for the Elmira Catholic High Student Body, for it marked the beginning of the 1950 school year. Climbing the famous three flights of stairs to E.C.H., mingling excitedly with our friends in her busy hall, making last minute changes in our schedule cards was an old experience for many of us but for some it was the first milestone in a career just beginning at Catholic High.

By now I can honestly say that the freshmen and the transfer students have completely merged with the old veteran students so that our school is now one big, happy family.

We soon learned disappointedly that two familiar faces were missing from the excitement of opening day. Sister Gregory and Sister Frances Cecelia both had been transferred to other schools. However we feel that in our loss we have gained two friends in the persons of Sister David and Sister Edwarda, their successors, and we welcome them both to Catholic High.

THOUGH MOST of the students admitted secretly to their friends that they were pleased to be returning to high school, golden memories of a happy summer danced in our heads as we took down the books from the old book shelf and hunted up a ruler before trudging off to old Catholic High.

Here's a little light on some of those happy memories that have found an enduring abode in the hearts of some of our adventurous students.

The Sodality Summer School at Fordham University was the occasion for a New York trip by Kitty Ryan, Toots Doran, Jack Cusick and Andy Von Hendy. Jack Murphy traveled way down yonder to Washington to represent St. Mary's sodality at the conference.

Boys State Convention sent Jack Cusick and Andy Von Hendy to Colgate University. Pat Keenan and "Rainie" Gubio were guests of relatives in New York City. Lil Crossed took time out from the Dunn Field schedule to make an appearance in the great "Sky-Scraper" city. St. Joseph's Hospital was the vacation spot chosen by Ray Winiecki and Jane Riley due to a little bug called appendicitis. Jo Ann Miles chose the same resort for a different reason, a very bad case of sunburn.

PHILADELPHIA WAS the vacation center visited by Pat Moylan and Sandy Saxe, the latter having journeyed by plane. John Nolan took Horace Greely's advice and went West, clear out to a little town called Burlington in beautiful, green Wisconsin. Dick Beckwith took the same advice and vacationed in Detroit.

The thought of an exciting vacation lured Margie Frisk to Washington, Barb Romasser to Buffalo and both Mary Kay Hogan and Mary Ann Lee to that far distant city, Binghamton, New York. Jack Titus vacationed in Rochester while Ginger Milliken traveled the rolling hills of Pennsylvania to the town of Kane.

The envy of all red-blooded Elmirans was Paul Daily, who served as hat boy for the Pioneers during his summer vacation. Another lucky student is Sandy Saxe, who worked for seven exciting, thrill-packed days at the First Aid Booth at the Chemung County Fair. The call of camp was answered by counselors John Geary and Jack Titus who were both on the Villa Maria staff and Doc Connelly who was a counselor at Camp Seneca. Joe Regan and Jimmy Agan went in for softball in a big way this summer. Jim pitched and Joe played first base for the Elmira Merchants.

SOME OF THE senior girls passed their vacation at Dunn Field. They enjoyed the morning drills as much as the games, but we wonder if it was the game of baseball alone that they liked so much. Some of the Senior girls were chosen worthy to take up the collection for the annual blind man's fund at an exhibition game. Jean Ann Ryan received a bicycle. Another bright spot with our students was the new swimming pool as well of course as the nearby lakes. Catholic High has reason to be proud too of its many students, who despite the torrid weather, secured summer jobs and set a pace with Rockefeller himself. Last but not least, Catholic High congratulates its many students who somehow became subject material for that popular radio program "Tops in Pops" during the recent vacation.

During the first week of school the Seniors said good-bye to two of their classmates, Ralph Reed and Don Kessing, who entered the Carmelite Seminary at Middlebury, New York and welcomed Paul Blitz, who came to us from Williamsport, Pennsylvania. The Junior Class also lost two of its members, Joe Brookman and John Maceri, who left for the Benedictine Abbey in New Jersey. Dolores Blitz, Paul's sister, has joined the Sophomores.

NCCW National President Coming for Diocesan Meet

Geneva — Plans for the annual Diocesan convention in Rochester were discussed at the quarterly meeting of the directors of the Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women Sunday in the K. of C. Home. There were 40 members present.

Arrangements for the meeting were made by Mrs. Harry Touhey, president of the Geneva unit.

THE CONVENTION will be held in Rochester Oct. 26. Bishop James E. Kearney will give the opening address. Mrs. Alfred S. Lucas of Alabama, president of the National Council, will be guest speaker. Convention sessions will be held at Rochester Chamber of Commerce, 75 St. Paul St.

Participating in the panels were Rev. Albert Shamon of Rochester, Rev. Leo McManus of Auburn, and Rev. John Coonan of Hornell.

Importance of individual action was stressed in a panel on the subject of "You", and second subject was "Creeds and Deeds".

BOARD'S JURISDICTION includes Rochester, Auburn, Geneva, Elmira, Corning, Ithaca and Hornell deaneries.

Mrs. Leo Muckle of Rochester, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president.

Refreshments were served with the Geneva group as hostesses. The committee included Mrs. James Higgins, Miss Regina Sweeney, Mrs. Thomas Boiger, Mrs. George Proechel Jr., Mrs. Ralph Morrison, Miss Sweeney and Miss Helen Van Northwick poured.
