Henrietta HNS Schedule Dances

The Henrietta Hayloft, three miles out of Rochester on the West Henrietta Road, will be a popular center for square dancing and roller skating each weekend of the fall and winter.

The opening barn dance will be held this Saturday evening, Sept. 24 to the music of Bill Donadoni's corn-buskers. Roller skating begins on the following Friday and Sunday evenings and will continue each weekend thereafter.

In announcing the Holy Name sponsorship of this social program, John Halpin, president said: "Our men feel that the best form of Catholic activity is to give the community wholesome recreation. The summer schedule of the plays presented here by the Genesee Valley Players was successful and we hope the fall and winter season's activities will be equally popular."
