

Bishop Kearney To Bless Babies In Elmira Rite

Ninth solemn blessing of Catholic babies, pre-school children and their parents will be imparted by the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, D.D., Bishop of Rochester on Sunday, Oct. 9 at 2 p. m. in St. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, the oldest church in Chemung County.

Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus will act as Guard of Honor to the Bishop.

The Bishop's Committee of Our Lady of Good Counsel of the Ladies of Charity is sending invitations to every baby enrolled by their committee.

NEWCOMERS to the city or babies who have been overlooked will receive invitations if their names are mailed immediately to Mrs. John F. Murphy, 508 Bay St., Elmira, N. Y. or to Mrs. John O'Leary, 318 Roe Ave., Elmira, N. Y.

Mrs. Samuel L. Terwilliger is general chairman.

Can Recall Early Days Of Parish

These two brothers, Alphonse and Alois Derleth, pioneers of Holy Ghost Parish, Coldwater, who can relate early events in the parish nearing its Diamond Jubilee get together at cards and other activities. Alphonse on left will be 80 years of age Oct. 1. His brother is 83.

Coldwater Parish Dances Attract Youths To Blessed Sacrament Hall

Blessed Sacrament Hall, Monroe at Oxford, will be the scene Oct. 2 of another in the new series of Saturday night dances sponsored for the youth of Rochester and arranged by a young people's committee of the parish.

Since the opening of the series this month, attendance has doubled at the dances, which will continue to be held weekly as long as the crowd keeps coming.

The feature attraction is the music of Eddie Blanchard's orchestra, a group which gained a considerable following at Grand View Beach during the summer months. Eddie's nine-man band is supported by the singing of popular Russ Casata.

Another headliner with the Blanchard aggregation is Bill Spitz, the trumpet player who won the Horace Heldt contest in Rochester and represented his home town in other cities with the touring show.

A refreshment stand set up in the hall serves coke, pretzels and potato chips.

Miss Betty Masse heads the dance committee. Assisting are Ellen Wilson, Art Florack, Pat Smith, Dick Gannale, Jerry Court, Mary Rita Tasketta, June Metzger, Barbara Bilekiewicz, publicity; Marcia Brown, Rita Wing, Bob Kalb, refreshment, Pat Morris, Betty Riffe, John Gramke, Bob Gay, Dick Franca, jackets, Janet Wing, Bill Powers, checking.

Chaperons include Mr. and Mrs. John Florack, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tasketta, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gaenzler.

Named Business Agent Clifford C. Shuffel, president of the Rochester Printing Crafts Union, announces the appointment of George J. Demmon as business agent of the union, a local independent union of craftsmen in the printing trade. Demmon, a resident of Niagara Falls, is a recent graduate of the New York State School of Industrial and Labor Relations at Cornell University.

Both gentlemen assisted in the manual labor of erecting the first parish church in 1875 and helped build the present stone structure which replaced it in 1906. The two met the late Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid, first Rochester ordinary, on horseback.

These kindly old gentlemen help each other during their leisure days, with cards and dominoes and simple chores, and continue Sunday after Sunday to edify the parishioners of Holy Ghost Church by their devout reception of Holy Communion.

Both men are widowers. Alphonse having had seven children, and Alois, six children.

THE LAST BLESSING at the grave was given by Father J. O'Brien, assisted by Monsignor Burns, Father Luddy, the Reverend Robert A. Keleher, and Father Lynch.

Sister Ethelbert entered the Sisters of Saint Joseph in 1899. She taught at Corpus Christi School, Rochester, for 22 years, after which she was appointed principal of that school. Later she was principal of Sacred Heart School, Rochester and principal of Immaculate Conception School of Ithaca.

Surviving Sister Ethelbert are one brother, Thomas Cahill, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Hughes, both of Ireland.

Graves Rite Set At Bloomfield

The time-honored Christian tradition of blessing the graves of departed relatives and friends of St. Bridget's Parish will be conducted in St. Bridget's Cemetery, East Bloomfield, Sunday, Oct. 2 at 3:30 p. m.

Services will begin in the church followed by a procession of priests and the laity to the cemetery where the graves will be blessed by the Rev. George W. Doud, pastor.

The group will return to the church where an appropriate sermon for the occasion will be preached by one of the Franciscan Fathers from St. Anthony Seminary and Padua High School, Watkins Glen.

Benediction will close the services.

Hospital Fund Drive Advances

Leadership of the Rochester Hospital Fund has been extremely active this week organizing committees and teams of volunteers for the final phases of the $5,940,000 fund to modernize and enlarge Greater Rochester's voluntary hospital system.

Three major committees, designed to reach every potential subscriber to the fund, will commence active solicitation next month and during November.

The employee program, commencing November 10, will appeal to almost all wage earners in major industry and business throughout the area; the special gifts committee will approach those believed able to make more substantial subscriptions; and the business and mercantile committee will approach merchants, small businesses and others.

Eileen Cadogan's Rites Conducted

Funeral of Miss Eileen E. Cadogan, 20 member of the staff of the Rochester Diocesan Office of the Propagation of the Faith, was held Wednesday, Sept. 28, 1949, in St. John the Evangelist Church.

Miss Cadogan died Monday, Sept. 26, 1949, at her home, 126 Cheswell Way.

Requiem High Mass was offered by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John E. Sullivan, pastor of St. John's.

The Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, director of the Propagation of the Faith, and the Rev. Dr. Charles J. Mahoney, Diocesan Superintendent of Schools, were in the sanctuary.

A choir of girls from Our Lady of Mercy High School sang the responses at the Mass. Members of the Sisters of Mercy were present.

Miss Cadogan was a graduate of St. John the Evangelist School, and Our Lady of Mercy High School. An active member of the Our Lady of Mercy Alumnae Association, she founded the association's publication "The Angles."

Besides her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Cadogan, she leaves four sisters, Sister Mary Patricia of the Missionary Sisters of St. Columban, Hyde Park, Mass.; and the Misses Joan, Noreen and Ann Cadogan; and one brother, Edward C. Cadogan.

Acting College Head New Rochelle, N. Y. — (NC) Mother M. Dorothea, of the Crulline Sisters, has been appointed president of the College of St. Rochelle for the year 1949-50.

Miss Eileen M. Walsh, who has resigned after two terms in office, it has been announced.

Smorgasbord Held After Aquinas Games

A "Victory Smorgasbord" will be served under the direction of Holy Rosary Post Catholic War Veterans and Auxiliary, following the Aquinas football games beginning Sunday Oct. 2.

The smorgasbord will begin at 5:30 p. m. in Holy Rosary parish hall Lexington Ave. The public is invited according to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, co-chairman. Price will be $75.
