TO OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY Pilgrim Virgin

Four young servicewomen in Uncle Sam's peacetime armed forces recite the rosary before the statue of Our Blessed Mother in the Nativity Church, Washington. Recliation of the rosary, honoring Our Lady of the Rosary, to whom October is dedicated, was sponsored by the USO-National Catholic Community Service. Rosary devotions are a regular part of the USO-NCCS, program of religious activities free to Catholic men and women in the armed forces, by NCCS. (NC Photos)

Veteran Maryknollers Work In New York's Chinatown

New York - (NC) - Right here in "little old New York" four Maryknoll priests are back in Chinese mission work. They have been assigned to conduct the Transfiguration parish in the heart of New York's Chinatown. The Mary. knollers succeed the Salesian

Fathers, who conducted the parish for the last 47 years. Expiaining the change, His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, pointed out that 59 years are the needs of the parish required lialian-speaking priests, so the Salesiana were called in. Ogsensburg, N. Y. -(NC)-Churches were so crowded during the visit of the "Pilgrim Virgin," Fatima statue, in the Ogdensburg diocese that several thousand people were unable to attend the services honoring Our Lady of Fathma. The services included prayers for peace and for the conversion of Russia, two things promised by the Blessed Mother in her Fatima apparations.

As has happened elsewhere on the two-year pligrimage of the statue through the United States. confessionals in the diocese were filled during the statue's visit. An average of seven priests heard confessions each evening at the churches where the statue remained.

Miss Craven Weds

Washington - (NC) - Miss Ruth Craven, executive secretary of the National Council of Catholic Women since September, 1944, has resigned that post to become the wife of Dr George Rock, dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of the Catholic University of America. No successor has been appointed as vet.
