Elmira Catholic Highlights

By REGINA BUSH
Due to the teachers' conference held last Thursday and Friday at Aquinas Institute, Rochester, various social and athletic activities highlighted the students' brief vacation.
The wet ground didn't prevent the Elmira Catholic High boys from making a grand football performance at Hawthorn Court last Thursday. Led by a real Lujak, Johnny Godwin, the Junior Class team easily pulverized Jim Agan's team, composed of Senior and Sophomore boys.
The soggy gridiron writhed in mud as the mighty "Caesar" Godwin, with the strength and force of his great nameake, went smashing over the goal line not once nor twice, but three times, scoring 18 points for his all star team.
Despite the good fight and the fine display of sportsmanship on the part of the losers, they failed to "hold the line" and thus Mac Curran, Paul Dalley and Dick Von Handy each made an additional touchdown, thereby boosting the final score to an overwhelming 38 to 0.
A quick survey of the Freshmen Homeroom shows that the "kiddies" are already adjusted to their new school life. "What do you like best at Catholic High?" was the question asked them and here are some typical replies.
Dot Woods "the extra holidays". Rita Podleski "the freshman homeroom". Dick Reidy "the elevator" and Shirley Kinney "my classmate". Bill Updike "the teachers". Joan Connelly topped it off with "It's a nice school and you meet a lot of swell kids".

THE POWER OF the Juniors as shown in that game, their splendid demonstration of smart plays and team coordination is the payoff resulting from much practice. Any noon you should chance by Arnot's Park you would find them hard at work with the old pigskin.
In pouring out credit where it is due, a big pitcher of it goes to those future football champs from the Freshmen Class who are frequently seen drilling at (Brand) Park.
Following their splashing victory the Junior football team sponsored a hayride Thursday night. The Freshmen stepped into swing with a hayride Friday night.
Another Catholic High student received a surprise vacation from school, when the old appendix bug claimed her. Johanna Knuth, a Sophomore, was the lucky or unlucky victim, depending on the way you look at it, which in turn probably depends upon your age.
Catholic High will be honored this week with a visit from our Most Reverend Bishop Kearney to officially dedicate and open our school year. Bishop Kearney will offer Mass for our school and the student body will assist and receive Holy Communion in a body.

Once again it has been proven that the old axiom "practice makes perfect" is as true today as it was the day it was first coined.
