Campaign Launched At Monastery Rites

Elmirans Seek Enrollees To Aid Dominicans Work

Plans for formation of a diocesan wide enrollment in the Association for the Perpetual Rosary were outlined by the Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien, Chaplain, at impressive ceremonies on the grounds of Elmira's Dominican Monastery Sunday.

Observance of Rosary Sunday drew the largest attendance at the annual event.

Father O'Brien paid a glowing tribute to the Cloistered Sisters for their "spiritual work which knows no geographical limits and are not confined to any one race or creed."

The outdoor services Sunday concluded a Novena which opened last Saturday in preparation for the Feast of the Holy Rosary.

OF GREAT interest to the throng was a 52-inch statue, the work of Sculptor Thedim of Lisbon from whose hands came the statue of Our Lady of Fatima long on tour in the United States which is a gift from a benefactor who has asked to remain anonymous.

The statue was on display on the lawn and will be placed in the Monastery chapel. Mother Theresa of the Dominican Monastery saw especially fitting the gift of the statue to the monastery where the Sisters are constantly at the recitation of the Rosary.

The enrollment campaign for the Sisters' Monastery has been launched with the approval of His Excellency Bishop Kearney of Rochester.

FUNDS RAISED will be used to provide an addition to the monastery to increase the spiritual works of the Dominican Sisters.

The Dominican Sisters of the Perpetual Rosary in the Elmira Monastery day after day and through the long vigils of the night with their hearts, their lips and their fingers are constantly weaving chaplets of the roses of prayer that they send up to God's Holy Mother that she may present them to her Divine Son, Father O'Brien said in his sermon.

Elmirans, noting their needs, have called to make the diocesan appeal. Persons of all creeds have joined in the campaign. The amount needed is more than $20,000. Enrollment cards are available by writing to the Rev. J. Edmund O'Brien, Dominican Monastery, Elmira, N. Y.

Concluding the Feast of the Holy Rosary ceremonies at the Dominican Monastery, Elmira, Sunday was the solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on the Monastery veranda. Officiating is the Rev. Philip E. McGhan, Chaplain of St. Joseph's Hospital assisted by the Rev. William A. Burns, Principal of Elmira Catholic High School. New statue of Our Lady may be noted at the extreme left in photo.

Venus, which formerly centered the Nestor garden.

HIGH SCHOOL age boys who will study for the order will arrive until later in the Fall after the dedication ceremonies.

Meantime during the summer students who were further along in their studies have come up from schools at Beacon and Staunton, Va. for brief vacations.

Another dwelling and four and a half acres of land were recently added to the seminary property in the purchase of the Herenden house. The order plans to use the three-story building as a residence for sisters of the order. While the house is not yet ready for occupancy it is expected to be refurnished and furnished within a month.

The sisters will act as house-keeping and nursing staff for the seminary. There will be about 25 students there this year according to seminary authorities. More will arrive next year.

Four sisters of the order will arrive as soon as the new house is ready for them. The seminary has seven faculty members. Work of the order, besides the seminary includes retreats and missions given in Italian and English.
