Mrs. Edwin Tetzlaff, president, is honorary chairman. Mrs. John J. Ball is chairman with Mrs. Howard Murphy, co-chairman.

Two Lithuanian DPs, Professors, Take Posts on Faculty of Nazareth College

Two Lithuanian professors recently arrived from overseas, have been added to the faculty of Nazareth College. They are Romualdas Zalubas and Mrs. Viada Sabaliauskas.

Mrs. Sabaliauskas holder of a Master's degree in Slavic languages from the University of Vilnius and qualified to teach instrumental music will be a member of the Music Department faculty. She is planning to offer classes in Russian in the Adult Education program of the college, in which alumnae and other adults are invited.

MR. ZALUBAS, a new member of the Mathematics faculty at Nazareth, is a graduate of the University of Vytautas the Great in Lithuania.

Organizer in Germany and Austria of the Central Office of Lithuanian Catholic Charities, he was executive of that office until he left Europe in 1940-44. He occupied the Chair of Astronomy at the University of Nazareth, and up until the Nazareth appointment was director and lecturer in Technical Courses at the Lithuanian College at Kempen.

Mr. Zalubas lives with his wife and nine-year-old son at 30 St. Jacob Street in Rochester, where he will be a member of St. George Lithuanian Parish.

MRS. SABALIAUSKAS, and her small child, are living at 14 Reed Park. Her husband, an attorney, is still in Germany, awaiting entry into the United States. He is expected in a few months.

Other new members of the Nazareth College faculty are Mrs. Frank O'Donnell, formerly teacher of music in each Rochester school, Music Department; Hermann Wild, advertising artist, Commercial Art and Fashion Illustration; Nicholas Cisternino, graduate of the Los Angeles Institute of Plastics, Plastic Craft; Miss Frances O'Herron Elmira, Biology Department; Andrew E. Knaut, local attorney, new course in Contemporary Affairs; Miss Winifred Soldan, new course in Contemporary Dance.

Recently arrived from Lithuania, Mrs. Viada Sabaliauskas and Romualdas Zalubas confer in Nazareth College Library. Now members of the faculty they will teach languages and mathematics respectively.

Monsignor Lyons To Address AOH Members, Guests Monday

Monroe County Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will sponsor a social evening on Sunday, Oct. 9, at 8 p.m. in Flower City Post American Legion Home, Dewey Ave.

Highlight of the evening will be an address by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward Lyons, who will speak on his recent travels through Europe and Ireland. Following the talk a social evening will be held which will include entertainment, dancing to an orchestra and refreshments.

Rev. Michael P. O'Brien County Chaplain of the A.O.H. is honorary Chairman of the event with Martin M. Brophy acting as General Chairman. They will be assisted by the following committees: Tickets and Door: Paul Shannon, Dorothy

AOH Unit Marks 55th Anniversary

Ladies Auxiliary No. 1 of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will celebrate their 55th anniversary with a dinner to be held at the "New Dutch Mill" on Dewey Avenue, Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 6:30 p.m.

Miss Vera O'Brien is chairman of the dinner. Her committee includes Miss Stephanie Murphy, Miss Frances Egan and Mrs. Irene Auberger.

Rev. Michael P. O'Brien, county chaplain of the A.O.H. will address the group. The Rev. Donald Murphy and the Rev. John P. O'Malley have also been invited.

Irish music will be played throughout the dinner and cards will follow. All members and their friends are invited to attend. Reservations must be made on or before Saturday, Oct. 8, by calling GLEN 7977 M or GLEN 3279-R.

Overseas Mail Dates Listed

Christmas mail for U. S. armed forces members overseas must be mailed between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15, to APO and Fleet Post Office. Postmaster Donald A. Dalley announces.

Parcels for delivery in Japan, in Korea and in the Pacific Islands must be in the mail not later than Nov. 1, while parcels for Navy and Marine Corps members serving in remote areas should be mailed not later than Oct. 15, the Rochester postmaster said. Christmas cards must be mailed in sealed envelopes at first class rate before Nov. 15.

Postmaster Dalley emphasized the necessity of packing in substantial boxes or metal containers, plainly printed or typed on the box wrapper, rather than on labels. A slip of paper containing the names of sender and addressee together with a list of contents of the parcel should be enclosed, he said.

Use of money orders is urged, since currency should not be mailed overseas. Postal notes must not be sent overseas. Prohibited articles for mailing, in addition to the usual ones, are matches and lighter fluids, cigaretttes and tobacco products.
