Elmira Catholic Highlights

By REGINA BUSH

His Excellency Bishop Kearney fittingly dedicated our school year to the Great Spirit of Wisdom and Understanding by celebrating the Mass of the Holy Ghost at St. Patrick's Church on Sept. 28.

Following the Mass Bishop Kearney gave an inspirational talk to the students. He stressed the point that we high school students belong to a certain state of life, a state which like all others has its own particular duties.

Our chief aim, he said, must be to live up to all its duties. We can do so by putting our very heart and soul into every spiritual, scholastic, social and athletic activity in which we partake. Then and only then will we be fully prepared and strengthened to meet what each day may bring us. The Bishop then generously gave the students the rest of the day off to concentrate on his words by whatever method they thought best.

Theory to Practice

It was plain to see that the Freshmen and Sophomore boys listened attentively to the Bishop's talk. They put everything they had into their exciting football demonstration at Hawthorn Court that afternoon. The eager Freshmen licked the Sophs by a score of 36 to 18.

The game proved that even though the corn might be green, the Freshmen certainly aren't. The future of sports at Catholic High looked very bright when during the game, the rising champ, Freshman Bill Wheaten scored three touchdowns and was followed by teammates Don Morgan, Dave Scanlon and Huey McFarland, each scoring one touchdown.

The Sophs took the defeat but not until three of their players—Jim Horak, Chuck Jung and Jim Farley each crash the line once.

Distaff Stuff

On the same afternoon a group of the Senior girls found themselves in the throes of all places.

The Freshmen girls used the time to plan a class skating party scheduled for Saturday night.

Fruits of Contemplation

Yes, all the Seniors will agree that they put "their all" into those little devotion inspiring

Services concluded with Benediction of The Blessed Sacrament with congregational singing by the Sisters and Nurses.
