Affection Called Chief Element In Child Training

San Antonio—(NC)—Of all the elements that go to make up a child's world the most important is affection, the Rev. Dr. Edgar Schmiedeler, O.S.B., director of the Family Life Bureau, National Catholic Welfare Conference, declared in a radio talk here.

AT OUR HOUSE

Like nearly all Catholics here, we've heard of the Family Rosary. We've read about it. We've listened to Father Patrick Ryan on the radio, and naturally we thought it a wonderful idea. But, unlike so many Catholic families who practice the devotion faithfully, Mary Daly we've done nothing about it not even in October. I'm ashamed to confess.

THE FIVE W'S SOLVE A ROSARY MYSTERY

By MARY TINLEY DALY
Then, in the midst of the splendor of beads and we found that Virginia had been saying her rosary, my Betty had been praying. Concentration on prayer was anything but perfect that first night.

New Fatima

Representing the second apparition of Our Blessed Mother, on June 13, 1917, is this statue, carved of Brazilian cedar wood, for the Sisters of the Holy Spirit, at St. Joseph's High School, Covington, Ky. The original was carved by Senor Jose Ferreira Theodim of Portugal, under the direction of Lucy (Sister Dolores of the Dorothean Sisters). The statue, representing the Immaculate Heart of Mary, was recently unveiled at the convent.

Youth Parade Short Cut To Happiness

By MARY HULLIVAN
Beginners' cruel cutting iron and take that wicked mob of hobnobbing with you too. Oh so that's the way you feel about cutting your hair? Well, my dear, it looks as if your hair is on its way because the old Pierre has just seen you. You're throwing a coffee moving party Friday night for some of my wicker happy friends. Come on along! Just bring a pair of scissors, a mixing bowl and a copy of Little Women.
