By W. J. WATERS
The original school, built in 1853 and which a wing was added in 1915, burned in April, 1946. The new wing was only slightly damaged and the new school will be on the site of the original building after the original structure was razed.

Before the Bishop's address, Mrs. Helen Johnson, representing the Truett Women's Relief Corps 61, presented a Relief flag and 24 smaller flags for the classrooms to Father Byrne. Father Byrne, accepting, said that the flag and the cross will typify the training received by the school's pupils in the love of God and love of country.

Delegate Blesses Capuchin School

The Capuchin school, which is the preparatory school in the diocese. Most recently dedicated was St. Anthony's Minor Seminary at Watkins Glen, dedicated by the Rev. Fr. John J. Moran, O.F.M., Capuchin.

In response to requests, the Archbishop delivered the blessing in Italian. Bishop Kearney again expressed his welcome to the students of St. Francis, who serve in the Church throughout the diocese.

The Rev. Albert Simonetti, pastor of St. Anthony's Capuchin school, was the celebrant. He was assisted by the Rev. John J. Moran, O.F.M., Capuchin, city judge, who presided in behalf of the Mayor.

Seven Sons Honor Moravia Couple On 50th Anniversary

Moravia—Mr. and Mrs. John F. O'Connell of Moravia celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, in an afternoon and evening reception at their home. More than 100 relatives and neighbors called to congratulate the couple.

Mr. O'Connell, who was born in Lawrence, Mass., came to Moravia more than 50 years ago on a visit, at which time he met and later married his wife, the former Mary Agnes Duggan of Moravia.

First Broadcast Of High Mass Goes Over WWHG

High Mass in St. Ann's Church was broadcast for the first time Sunday when Horrell station WWHG carried the entire service from 11 a.m. until 12:30 p.m.

The Mass was explained to the radio audience by the Rev. John D. Malley, assistant pastor. Comments heard later revealed that some of the non-Catholic listeners had an opportunity to learn the meaning of the Sacrifice for the first time.

The Rev. John L. Coonan, assistant pastor, delivered the sermon. Father Coonan spoke on devotion to the Holy Rosary, using as background the story of Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima.

Mass was celebrated by the Rev. John McDonough, S.V.D. of St. Michael's Mission House. Concelebrant music was furnished by St. Ann's adult choir who sang Missa Brevis by Cary and the Boys' Choir, who sang the Gregorian Proper of the Mass responses and Credo.

The Boys' Choir composed of pupils of St. Ann's School were trained and directed by Sister M. Gabriel and Sister M. Raymond Joseph of St. Ann's music department. The adult choir was directed by Miss Dolores Hanrahan, with Miss Marie Pruner, organist.

Wilson Tops St. Aloysius Bowling League With 555

Auburn—Bud Wilson, the fighting spark-plug of the powerhouse Georgetown team of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League, led his team to a three to one victory over Villanova with his 555 total.

This victory advanced Georgetown to third place while it dropped Villanova to second. Wilson put plenty of fight in the Georgetown team, inspiring Vern Pinckney to a 540 total and Jack Madden to a 512. John Miskell had something to say about the victory for the slogan goes "as Miskell goes so goes the team".

Despite the defeat, Villanova came up with high single game led by Freddy Gilbert a 243-high individual single. Gilbert threw a strike after strike to inspire his team to 860, the season's high team single. Freddy came through with a 541 total, while Captain Ralph Casbarro had 517. Jack Bearsh had 506 and Father Hafley 509.

NOTRE DAME went out to win for their Captain Frank O'Connor, who has been sick. Terry, the terrific, came through with a 540 to set the pace for the victors. John managed to stay in second place of the "Turkey Trot" by bagging a 209 in his last game. Bob Holmes and JOHN BODNAR came in for second high honors of the day by rolling 350 and second high single of 234 which helped Gonzaga to a three to one victory over Holy Cross. Bodnar is the leader in "Terry's Turkey Trot" from here it looks like he will win the Thanksgiving Turkey.

Captain Tony Maife had a bad game that held his total down to 505 but his 200 game was the means of giving Holy Cross their only point. Paul J. Graney had a hard time of it trying to pull in the Brooklyn Dodgers and combat the heat and so his bowling was not up to his 711 class, otherwise Holy Cross would have been victors.
