AT OUR HOUSE

By MARY TENLEY DALY

There has been a change in the telephone service at our house—a change for the better, of course. Because that is the only way it could go.

For a long time there have been long, loud complaints—maybe you have the same thing at your house. Somebody would call for the head of the House. "Sorry, he's not in," one of our so-called secretaries would say. "But I'll be glad to take a message for him."

THE GIRLS ARE always filled with remorse, of course, and firm purposes of amendment—until the next time. Oh, they would write down the messages, all right, with good intentions—but the paper would be mislaid or torn up in the washing machine when the particular blouse they were wearing went to the wash.

One such faded-out message read: "Smith, Tom, Friday."—in Markie's handwriting. "Yeah, I told her you'd come, Mom," she said. It was then Monday noon.

for tea on Friday, and which Friday?"

"THERE'S a dime for every message that results in a sale," he stated simply. "And when they ask for Mister Dalry they take chances—they might mean me, so take down the number, just in case."

Vienna—(RNS)—Communists got only four per cent of the total vote in Austria's parliamentary elections, which saw the Catholic-backed conservative People's Party win about 46 per cent of the ballots.
