

Halloween Dance At Immaculate

Annual Halloween dance of the Immaculate Youth Club will take place Monday evening, Oct. 31, at the auditorium from 8 to 11.

All types of costumes will be in vogue at this traditional harvest event, with old clothes and rags being among the popular attire.

Music will be furnished by Joe Nolan and Bob Dunlap's orchestra continuously from 8:30 until midnight. Many Sadie Hawkins numbers will be planned for the evening giving the girls a chance to ask the partner of their choice.

Arrangements are being made by Arlene Hurter and Shirley Sweetland of Nazareth Academy. Miss Margaret Jerzak is general chairman, assisted by a staff of high school girls.

All young men and women of high school age are invited to attend this Halloween frolic and dance. Price of admission will be seventy cents.

START GIRL SCOUT TROOP

ELECT EDENHOFER
Lorraine G. (Larry) Edenhofen's closeness to the people (he is known and respected by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the city) is typical of the candidate on the Democratic ticket this Fall. His acquaintance with "the man in the street" is a guarantee that his service in the City Council will reflect "the will of the people." For government "of the people" this city needs men like Larry Edenhofen.

Square Dance At St. Andrew's

Boy Scouts of St. Andrew's Parish will be host to the parishioners on Saturday, Oct. 29 at a square dance with music by Bill Donadoni and his orchestra. Dancing will begin at 9 p. m. in St. Andrew's school hall. This is the opening of a series of weekly square dances to be sponsored alternately by the War Veterans of St. Andrew's Memorial Post 1201.

St. Charles Unit Forms New Girl Scout Unit 274

A new girl scout troop formed under the sponsorship of St. Charles Borromeo-Rosary Society, held investiture ceremonies Wednesday evening presenting 17 girls with girl scout "tenderfoot" pins.

The Rev. John Lynch, assistant pastor of St. Charles, blessed the pins for the group of girls, aged 10 to 14, who will comprise Girl Scout Troop No. 274.

Mrs. John Flavin is leader of the new troop, assisted by Mrs. Marvin Smith, assistant leader.

Guests from scout headquarters were Mrs. Harlin Koch, district chairman, and Miss Mary Muivey, district director. Mrs. Koch addressed the group briefly.

Parents of the new troop members were guests. Refreshments were served.
