

Fr. Gardner Tells Auburn Group Of Reformatory

Auburn — The monthly meeting of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and Rosary Society of St. Aloysius Church was held on Monday evening, October 27, at the parish home.

A successful card party was held October 3 at the Vet's Hall in Water Street was reported on and the money realized was turned over to the Rev. Frederick C. Straub for the new school fund.

Rev. Clarence Gardner, spiritual director of the society, was present at the meeting after being absent six weeks from the parish, acting as temporary chaplain of the Elmira Reformatory, relieving Rev. Francis J. Lane, a noted Catholic chaplain who was instrumental in establishing Catholic chaplains in reformatories throughout the country.

Father Gardner related his experiences at the institution and discussed the lives and characters of the inmates. He also stated that a novena is held at the institution every Friday evening in honor of St. John Bosco who did so much for boys in Italy during his time.

Order and discipline were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Edward Vandenberg and Mrs. Helen Broeky at the close of the meeting.

Pucino's 603, Strapach's 254 Tops Auburn League

Auburn — Joe Pucino of the Canisius Team of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League had his ball hopping Sunday as he rolled games of 189, 201 and 213 for a 603 total the high of the day. Despite Joe's fine bowling his team could only garner one point, just enough to remain in a tie for first place with Notre Dame.

One consolation Pucino had was the fact he beat out his brother-in-law for high three of the day. Captain Tony Maifa led his Holy Cross team to a three-to-one victory over Canisius with his 546 Paul J. Graney with 510 joined with Maifa to overcome Pucino's 603 and gain victory for the Crusaders.

The match of the day was between Georgetown and Notre Dame. Vern Pinckney of the powerful Georgetown team through with a 585 total, the second high for the day to lead his team to a three-to-one victory over first place Notre Dame. Pinckney inspired his buddy Andy Padlock to a 568 total which contributed much to the victory. Bud Wilson, despite a bad day came through with 520. This win put Georgetown in second place.

JOHN TERRY became once again the terror he used to be as he put his best foot forward in the third game and came up Notre Dame to their one point and kept them in a tie for first place. Terry ended with a 566 total, just enough to make the "Big Five." Frank Goss with 503 and Jack Friedel with 502 were next best for "The Fighting Irish."

Joe Strapach the lead off man for Loyola did a good job in leading his team to a white wash of Williams. Joe started the ball rolling with a 254 game the new single high of the season which helped him to a 577 total. Captain Bill Bishop was inspired with Strapach's bowling and turned in a neat 527.

Captain Ralph Casbarro with 501 was best for the losers. John Bodnar with a 533 total led the Gonzaga team to a four to-nothing victory over Santa Clara Bodnar by hitting 201 in his second game retained his lead in "Terry's Turkey Trot" which has only one more week to run. Graney, Rice and Kennedy helped out in the victory with their doubles and triples. Harold "Champ" Jones with 505 was best for the losers. The Stigmatons had a cheering section but even this could not win for Santa Clara.

Tubilee Marked At St. Michael's

MONSIGNOR BAIKRI, professor of dogmatic theology at St. Bernard's Seminary and an assistant at St. Michael's from 1909 to 1913, principal dinner speaker, praised "the spirit of St. Michael's pioneer parishioners whose successful material accomplishments were out matched only by the fervor of their faith."

Father Florack expressing thanks to all wellwishers and committee participants hailed the jubilee "as a time of thanks giving to Almighty God and of rejoicing of His many blessings."

Impromptu talks and songs featured the program, which was followed by dancing. Guests at the speakers' table included the Reverend Fathers George J. Wetmann, Jacob R. Rauber, Edward A. Shamon, Theodore J. Wintoroth and John B. Klintjes. Closing prayer was one written for the jubilee occasion by Rufus Maier, committee chairman.

OTHER JUBILEE events included Solemn High Masses on Monday and Tuesday for parents and children of the parish and for deceased priests and parishioners, and the presentation Monday and Tuesday nights of a jubilee play by children of the school. Wednesday was a free day for the school pupils. Some 200 families established St. Michael's Church in 1874. The present Gothic edifice was dedicated in 1890. The parish school and plant, including school, rectory, convent and parish hall, has undergone considerable renovation under Father Florack's direction. Present assistant pastors are the Rev. Francis Kleehammer and Father Schifferli.
