Tubilee Marked At St. Michael's (Continued from Page 1A) Lomb Company cafeteria

MONSIGNOR BAIKRI, professor of dogmatic theology at St. Bernard's Seminary and an assistant at St. Michael's from 1909 to 1913, principal dinner speaker, praised "the spirit of St. Michael's pioneer parishioners whose successful material accomplishments were outmatched only by the fervor of their faith."

Father Florack expressing thanks to all wellwishers and committee participants hailed the jubilee "as a time of thanks giving to Almighty God and of rejoicing of His many blessings."

Impromptu talks and songs featured the program, which was followed by dancing. Guests at the speakers' table included the Reverend Fathers George J. Weismann, Jacob R. Rauber, Edward A. Shamon, Theodore J. Wintoroth and John B. Kline.

Other jubilee events included Solemn High Masses on Monday and Tuesday for parents and children of the parish and for deceased priests and parishioners, and the presentation Monday and Tuesday nights of a jubilee play by children of the school. Wednesday was a free day for the school pupils.

Some 200 families established St. Michael's Church in 1874. The present Gothic edifice was dedicated in 1890. The parish school and plant, including school, rectory, convent and parish hall, has undergone considerable renovation under Father Florack's direction. Present assistant pastors are the Rev. Francis Kleehammer and Father Schifferli.
