A Purple Heart
 Catholic High's Junior football team is still champ but there's noticeable pep lacking from their lineup. This is due to the fact that the boys are short one very valuable player, Paul F. Kelly who took the old axiom "Practice makes perfect" rather seriously. Paul practiced and practiced until a broken collar bone plus a few smashed ribs forced him into the hospital.

Our Undercover Men
 Another committee has been named in preparation of this year's yearbook. The sports section of the book will be managed by Bob Hardiman, Jim Agan and Joe Regan.

Deadline Advanced
 Due to the coal shortage and elimination of some trains all news copy for the Catholic Courier Journal must be in the Rochester office, 33 Scho St. before noon, Tuesday. This deadline will be maintained until further notice.
