The only man on Gonzaga that stood out was Charlie Rice who bowled thirty three pins over his average. Charlie was inspired by his mascot "Mike," a brown cocker spaniel. After "Mike" arrived Charlie missed only one spare. This was a welcome victory for Villanova who had previously garnered only one point out of twelve.

The match of the day was between Canisius and Notre Dame who were both tied for first place as the match started at the end of the second game. It looked like they were going to end up in a tie again but Canisius took advantage of Notre Dame's slip from a 905 game to 765, to take three points and first place as the first round ends.
