Monsignor Sheen Culture Lecture Slated Nov. 18

The Rt. Rev. Magr. Fulton J. Sheen, acknowledged leading exponent of Catholic doctrine in the United States, returns to the Aquinas Christian Culture Series for the ninth consecutive season when he speaks on Friday, Nov. 18, in Aquinas Auditorium, Dewey Ave.

Lecturer this Friday, Nov. 11, will be Donald Altwater, noted authority on the Eastern Church who will speak on "Culture with Worship."

Monsignor Sheen who has just returned from an extended visit abroad, is author of more than 40 books, his latest being the challenging best-seller "Peace of Soul," which is currently running in the Catholic Courier Journal. Scholar, lecturer, professor and author, the noted Catholic University professor is a fearless learned champion of truth and has been called "The Apostle of Our Time."

Among his converts, Monsignor Sheen numbers Heywood Brown, Henry Ford II, Horace Mann, Fritz Kreisler and two lecturers appearing on the Christian Culture Series this season, Clare Booth Luce and Elizabeth Cobb Rogers, daughter of the great American humorist, the late Irvin S. Cobb. The Rev. Alphense Malone, C.S.B., is the director of the Christian Culture Series.
