Powers DAV Chapter Seeking New Members

Members of the Leo W. and Robert L. Powers Chapter No. 89, Disabled American Veterans are in the midst of a membership campaign and received 30 new members last week according to Gilbert T. Carpenter, commandant.

The membership campaign is in charge of Chairman John Manning. The chapter is nearing its third anniversary and the members are seeking to double their membership according to Manning.

The chapter is named for the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Powers, 15 Boardman St. Robert and Leo who made the supreme sacrifice in World War II.

Robert was an Air Corps Lieutenant who was lost in action over Formosa, Feb. 15, 1945. Private Leo died in battle in France on April 1, 1945. Both were former Aquinas Institute students.

Practical Nursing Open House Slated

All high school girls and women in Rochester and vicinity are being invited to Open House of the Rochester School of Practical Nursing in Jefferson High School, Tuesday, Nov. 15.

A tour of the recently enlarged school will be conducted. Visitors will have opportunity to see the new ten bed nursing laboratory, lecture and conference rooms, and home making unit. The list of practical periods of classes in nursing procedures and a demonstration in home economics may be observed.

Miss Isabell Hill, school director, will welcome guests between 2:30 and 4:30 p. m. and will answer questions pertaining to the course offered. Miss Catherine C. Brophy, Director of Public Health Nursing, University of Rochester is chairman of entertainment and refreshments.

The course which is free to residents of Rochester or those who establish a residence in Rochester during their training, covers a period of 12 months including a month's vacation.

Funeral Firm Opens Branch

Henry D. Halloran, Sons funeral directors announce the opening of a branch funeral home at 141 Arnett Blvd. at Genesee. The new home is completely furnished with modern equipment, the firm states.

The Halloran firm has been in business for 79 years and the late Henry D. Halloran opened one of the first funeral homes in Rochester in 1930 at 341 Plymouth Ave. South present location.

Sons of the founder now conduct the business. They are M. Alvah Halloran of Good Counsel parish, Vernon E. of St. Monica's and H. Elmer of Immaculate parish.

Geneva Nun Winner In Grid Team Naming

Geneva Sister M. Immaculate of De Sales High school staff was one of the winners in the nickname contest for the Geneva High school football team recently. In fact Sister submitted several suggestions for names for the red and black team. She tied with two other winners who submitted the same name, "Panthers."
