Legion Hits Immoral Films Booked At Local Theaters

Rochesterians should avoid two seriously objectionable films currently showing in local theaters, the national Legion of Decency warned this week as the Paramount and the Cinema scheduled movies condemned as sordid and immoral in theme. "Beyond the Forest" and "Devil and the Flesh" were rated as "unfit for public entertainment" because of "morally offensive" stories and characterizations.

WHAT OF HER CHRISTMAS

Members of the United States Forces in Austria will again play Santa Claus for the underprivileged children of Vienna, in their fourth annual Christmas program. In the picture, a crippled child plays with her doll before the door of her home, a 350-year-old building made almost unlivable by dampness and decay.

Inn-keeper Chosen for Lead In '50 German Passion Play

Oberammergau, Germany (AP) — The principal roles in the world-famous Passion Play to be presented here in 1950, after a lapse of 16 years, will be performed by a 37-year-old hotel owner Anton Presinger as Christ and a 26-year-old attractive blonde Annemarie Mast as Mary.
